State Cops Smash Prison Rioters' Break to Arsenal

Felons Use Lives of 10 Guards Today As Bargaining Weapon and Demand Governor Enter Peace Negotiations

BULLETIN

JACKSON, Mich. (AP) — Southern Michigan Prison's mutineer convicts, continuing a piecemeal bargaining operation, released a fourth hostage today.

The barricaded felons of besieged Cell Block 15 gave up H. S. Carrier, 43, a prison guard whom they had held since Sunday night.

Thirteen hostages at one time were held.

JACKSON, Mich. (AP) — Rioting convicts in Southern Michigan Prison Cellblock 15 today were reported ready to release one of the nine prison guards still being held in custody.

Prison Psychologist Vernon Fox, back from his third discussion of the morning with the beleagured prisoners, said they voluntarily agreed to release one more guard "because of our courtesy to them."

As he went into the talks Fox said in response to a question: "Yes, we have made progress."

The guard to be released, Fox said, was designated by the prisoners as H. S. Carrier, 43, of Jackson, one of the four originally seized when the mutiny started Sunday night.

Family Has Kept Vigil

His wife and child have been keeping vigil in the administration building during his imprisonment.

"There was no particular reason given for picking him," Dr. Fox told reporters.

Originally 13 guards were held by the convicts, who have seized and held control of Cell Block 15, the isolation section of the huge state prison. Three other guards besides Carrier previously had been released, one because of age, another because of illness and a third in a voluntary deal involving yesterday's radio broadcast by one of the rioters.

Others In Good Shape

Fox said prisoners had assured him all of the remaining guards were in good shape.

State Senator Charles F. Blondy, Democratic floor leader in the Michigan Senate, accompanied Dr. Fox to the cell block conference.

Blondy said he asked the prisoners "whether they would call this thing to a halt at this time."

"Silence was their only answer," the senator said. Fox broke in and told the newsmen:

"They don't want to be hurried. I want to ride with it —to wait it out."

Blondy described their discussion with the mutineers as "calm, without any noise in the background."

Earlier this morning state police smashed a plot of the mutineers to break into the prison arsenal, in the administration building.

Convicts were reported to have ripped off a metal cover over a tunnel entrance within Block 15. A sound of banging and clattering gave them away and a score of rifle - carrying state police and guards rushed into the tunnel to nip the escape attempt.

Negotiations resumed after a midnight peace bid to the hold-out convicts from Warden Julian N. Frisbie.

There were signs prison heads were willing to go along with some of the mutineers' demands.

Subsequently, came the demand for Gov. Williams' participation.

Earl Ward, insurrection leader, made the demand in a telephone talk from besieged Block 15 to Deputy Warden George Bacon. Ward demanded the governor's signature to any agreement.

For 10 minutes this morning Ward talked through a barred window with Dr. Vernon Fox, assistant deputy warden and prison psychologist.

Afterwards, Fox went to the prison kitchen, presumably to get food for the 173 block inmates, now going into the third day of their fierce holdout.

The holed-up convicts accused the prison system of "brutality" and demanded reforms in a number of phases of prison administration.

"The demands are not unreasonable," Frisbie conceded, "but there are not grounds for some."

He made the statement to a reporter as he waited for contact with cell block 15.

Frisbie tried to conciliate Ward in an attempt to save the lives of 10 guards held as hostages.

The convicts say they will put the hostages to death if police rush their stronghold. A force of 600 state police and guards are concentrated at the prison.

Rioting Monday caused two million dollars damage to the "big house." One convict was killed and at least nine were injured. State police had to fire volleys to get equipment into the prison yards to put out fires set by the convicts.

Before the worst of the rioting was quelled, four state troopers were injured and three prison guards were beaten.

Sporadic outbreaks in various cell blocks heightened tension yesterday.

Violence broke out among the mutineers themselves as they purged their own group of dissenters and "stool-pigeons." They reportedly quarreled over whether to prolong the mutiny and what to do with the hostages.

Rahway Prison Cons Meekly End Mutiny

The 231 Rebels Surrender, Free 8 Guards Today

RAHWAY, N. J. (AP)—Rebellious convicts at Rahway State Prison Farm surrendered meekly to authorities late yesterday, ending a five-day mutiny.

The 231 rebels, who had been barricaded in a dormitory wing for almost 115 hours, gave up after freeing eight guards htey held as hostages.

Unshaven and haggard, the convicts shuffled slowly in pairs out of hte building from which they earlier had shouted defiance to prison auhtorities.

Just prior to their surrender, the rebels pulled down crudely lettered bedsheet signs which hung outside the dormitory windows, and burned them.

In a staetment from Trenotn after the convicts gave up to authorities, the New Jersey State Department of Institutions and Agencies said:

"The settlement includes the same agreement stipulated by the department yesterday, namely a a survey of parole procedures and a promise there would be no corporal punishment visited on the inmates who lately barricaded themselves."

These were the convicts' two major demands.

As the mutineers filed from the debris-littered building, they were frisked by guards, taken for physical checkups and then sent to a prison drill hall to spend the night, said F. Lovell Bixby, deputy institutions commissioner.

"I'm damned glad to be out of there," said one of the hostage guards as he left the barricaded second floor of the wing.

Another guard said, "They treated us pretty well."

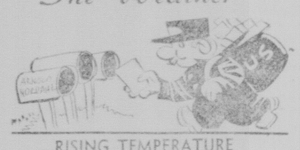

Earlier in the day, Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll announced he will appoint a committee to investigate the state's prison system.

House Shelves Bill On Naming Judges

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House today shelved a bill to let President Truman appoint 23 new federal judges.

By a roll-call vote of 165 to 149 it sent the bill back to the Judiciary Committee, where it was expected to die.

Most Republicans backed the recommittal motion, while most Democrats opposed it. Many Democrats were absent, however, while only a few Republicans were missing.

GOP foes claimed the new judgeships aren't neeessary and said now is not the time to give the President more powers. Democrats insisted the new posts are needed if the courts are to speed up the administration of justice.

The bill followed mainly the provisions of a Senate-passed measure.

Expenses of Operating Local Schools Total $551,277 Year

While salaries of Sedalia's school teachers are not high by comparison with others in similar and even smaller schools of the state, the cost for salaries is the major item of expense for the Sedalia school system.

If the school system for next year is to be continued on the present level, with the same number of teachers receiving the same salaries for the same period of time, the school levy must be passed at the special election next Tuesday.

The levy to be voted upon is the same one that has been in effect for the past year.

Salaries for teachers, custodians and others in the local schools total (with a nine month school year and the full slate of teachers) $428,370.

If the levy is not passed, most of the fund to be lost to the schools will have to be cut from the salary fund. It will be done in two ways: (1) cutting out one month's pay for all the teachers by reducing the system from nine months to just an eight months term; and (2) by not employing teachers to take the place of those retiring or resigning this year.

Other expenses which must be met from the school money, much of which comes from the tax levy, include:

Interest and bond payments	$43,907.20
Textbooks, libraaries and supplementary materials	13,000.00
Instructional supplies	4,500.00
Fuel	8,500.00
Water	3,500.00
Light and power	8,500.00
Janitors supplies	6,000.00
Social Security payments	1,000.00
State Teacher retirement payments	15,000.00
Building repairs	6,000.00
Heating, plumbing, lighting and electrical repairs	4,000.00
Insurance	5,000.00
Telephones	1,000.00
New equipment, etc.	3,000.00
Total for all purposes	$551,277.20

Korean Talks Move to Near Truce or Full Breakdown

Washington Officials Believe Agreement May Come Within Few Days; But Chances Seem Less Than They Were Few Days Ago

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Korean truce negotiations now are moving through the most critical stage in many months.

Officials here believe a decisive turn toward either a breakdown or an agreement may come within a few days.

There is much less optimism here now about the chances for an agreement than was apparent 10 days ago. The reason: Still secret Allied proposals which were supposed to ease acceptance by the Reds of voluntary prisoner return apparently have not had the hoped-for result.

The Communist attitude has been demonstrated in a new wave of propaganda attacks on the United States from the Red Chinese Radio at Peiping. The Reds have charged America with spreading "artificially-inspired propaganda" of optimism to divert attention from the real issues.

They have accused the United Nations Command in Korea of committing "the grossest provocation" by allegedly collecting petitions from Communist prisoners of war held by the Allies stating that the signers desire not to return to Communist territory.

Authorities here say this is a distorted reference to an investigation reportedly made by Allied authorities among the prisoners to find out how many want to go home and how many desire not to return.

The investigation was made during a suspension of negotiations on the prisoner problem at Panmunjom. The negotiations were resumed last Saturday, indicating the inquiry had been completed. Secrecy has covered this phase of the talks with the Communists in recent weeks, however, and results on the check have not been publicly disclosed.

Previous optimism for an armistice agreement rested mainly on the belief a solution was near on the prisoner exchange issue. The Reds have insisted on acceptance of the principle that all prisoners of both sides be sent home regardless of their individual wishes. The United Nations Command has declared prisoners who do not wish to return across the battle lines should not be forced to do so.

Officials here and U. N. leaders in Korea have said repeatedly there would be no compromise on this basic principle.

The POW problem has long been regarded by Allied authorities as the key issue of three big ones remaining in the truce talks. The other two issues are a ban on building up of Red air fields in North Korea after an armistice and the Communist demand that Soviet Russia participate in truce supervision as one of several "neutral" governments.

American officials have felt for a long time that if the POW problem could be solved, the other two issues would be quickly disposed of.

Failure to solve the POW dispute soon, some authorities here believe, could head the truce talks toward a breakdown.

What would happen in event of a deadlock is anybody's guess.

The Reds have been building up their forces and supplies during the long months of negotiations and it is assumed that they would be in position to launch an offensive if they wished.

On the other side of the battleline, U. N. forces are reported to have strengthened their defensive positions greatly and Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, the U. N. commander is reported confident that any offensive the Reds may launch could be smashed.

Bolivia's Largest Paper May Be Seized By the Government

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP)—Is Bolivia's largest newspaper, La Razon, going the way of Argentina's Prensa?

La Razon has not been published for two weeks and staff members are wondering if the newspaper will be seized by Bolivia's new government, much as President Juan D. Peron in Argentina ordered the taking-over of La Prensa of Buenos Aires.

The newspaper is owned by Victor Aramayo, one of the top three tin producers in Bolivia. It has bitterly opposed the National Revolutionary Party (MNR), now back in power after a revolution.

President Victor Paz Estenssoro has said La Razon (Reason) can resume publication "at its own risk". But he added he would not use gogernment forces to protect the newspaper against the wrath of the still-armed populace largely made up of miners — many of whom hate La Razon and threaten to prevent its publication.

In effect, scholarly Paz Estenssro is caught in a dilemma. He has assured foreign newsmen his revolutionary government will not curtail the freedom of the press. At the same time he is loath to move against the armed populace who brought him to power. He has urged a cooling off period before La Razon's owners attempt to publish the newspaper again.

Harriman Puts Hat In Ring

Comes Out Favoring Truman Platform, Domestic, Foreign

WASHINGTON (AP) — W. Averell Harriman, foreign aid troubleshooter and "a great liberal" in the eyes of President Truman, is the fourth avowed candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

The wealthy 60-year-old New Yorker launched his nation-wide bid with a promise to fight for the administration's domestic and foreign policies — "social progress for all our citizens and farsighted, unfaltering world leadership."

He emphasized, at a news conference yesterday, that he is "an active candidate," not just a "favorite son" holding New York's 94-vote delegation until leaders decide whom to back at the national convention.

Harriman, now Mutual Security director, is a disciple of the late President Roosevelt's "New Deal" and Truman's "Fair Deal" programs. His service with the administration, chiefly in foreign affairs, dates to 1933, Roosevelt's first year as president.

Harriman expressed gratitude for the public support of 45 of 62 Democratic county chairmen in New York — practically assuring him the state's convention delegation elected yesterday. He called "gratifying" the formation of a national Harriman-for-president Committee headed by New York's Senator Lehman and Reprseentative Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr.

Baca Airlines Would Run 3 Lines In State

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Baca Airlines of Jefferson City has asked the Civil Aeronautics Board for authority to operate three new lines within Missouri, it was reported today.

One would be between St. Louis and Kansas City with stops at Mexico and Moberly. The line asked permission to provide passenger mail and freight service with two flights daily each way.

The second would provide two flights daily each way between Kansas City and St. Louis, via Rolla, Waynesville and Ft. Leonard Wood.

The third would supply a north-south service with stops at Cape Girardeau, Springfield, Ft. Leonard Wood, St. Joseph, Moberly and Kirksville. During the tourist season an additional stop would be made at the Lake of the Ozarks on the two flights each way every day.

All service would be in single-engine aircraft.

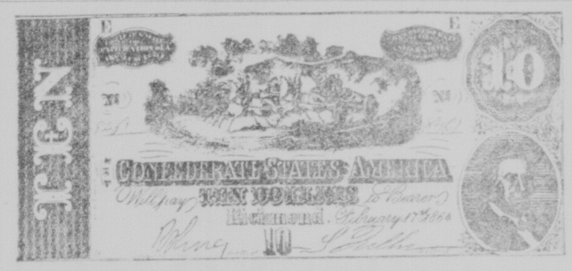

The company has been operating a line between St. Louis and Kansas City with stops at Jefferson City and Columbia. It has asked authority to make way stops at Boonville and Sedalia, also.

Bread at 50 Cents Loaf to Raise Fund For Flood Victims

RENO (AP)—Bread will be on sale at 50 cents a loaf here this week end to raise moncy to help flood victims in the Midwest, the nation's "breadbasket."

Under the "Bread for the Breadbasket" plan, shoppers wanting to help Missouri and Mississippi River flood victims purchase the 50-cent bread, and grocers turn the excess price over to the Red Cross.

Red Cross officials said the plan may be tried nationally.

LEGAL TENDER IN SEDALIA during the next three days will be these replicas of Confederate currency. Shoppers will find the bills—and the advertisements for the things they'll buy—in the spaces of the merchants' in today's Democrat.

Build Levees Higher As Fresh Destruction Moves Down Big Mo.

While Mighty Mo. Pours Its Deluge Into Four States, Mississippi Hits Its Weight Against Iowa Borders

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Flood workers built their levees higher at Kansas City today, spurred by the Missouri River's fresh destruction upstream and a continued pattern of rain.

They said the extra height wouldn't be needed, but they wanted to have it—just in case.

Both the nation's longest rivers spread destruction in record floods for miles along their length.

The mighty Mississippi flurg its weight at towns along the Iowa border. Crests were expected there today a little higher than last year's records.

New Crisis Hourly

And along the wild Missouri, the flood brought almost hourly crises.

So far, the Red Cross estimated, 26,538 families or about 105,000 persons have been forced to flee their homes in the two major floods.

The extra protection being built on top of levees at Kansas City is the same kind of wooden "flashboarding" used to save Omaha, Nebr., and Council Bluffs, Ia., last week.

There was nothing in sight, however, to indicate another disaster like the one that hit Kansas City, Kan., and Kansas City, Mo., last July, causing huge industrial district losses.

But with the treacherous Missouri you never know.

Army engineers boosted their estimates of damage to $54,800,000 from Rulo in Southeastern Nebraska to the mouth above St. Louis. That included $29,700,000 of agricultural damage.

600,000 Acres Inundated

More than 600,000 acres are expected to be flooded in that stretch.

The Missouri's slowly moving flood crest today was around St. Joseph with a top of 27.2 feet expected, equaling the 1881 record. Actually, Col. E.E. Browning said the river is carrying more water now than it did in that record flood.

No very heavy rains were forecast, although moisture-laden air continued to pour north from the gulf, bumping into cool air from the Pacific. That brought intermittent showers in the danger area of Kansas and Missouri.

Forecasters said that if heavy general rains developed, they'd have to raise their predicted flood peak at Kansas City to 32 feet—a foot higher than the level now predicted for Friday. Last year's record here was 36.2 Flood stage is 22 and the levees are built to take 40.8.

Rain In Miss. Valley

Light rain also fell in the Mississippi Valley but not enough to affect the flood choked river very much.

In Iowa, highways were closed as far south as Davenport. Dubuque railroad stations were closed but trains kept running. Leaking dikes kept flood fighters busy at Sabula, north of Clinton.

At Muscatine, levees held and officials said "we seem pretty well braced."

At Leavenworth, Kan., the last private levee in the Kansas City district collapsed late yesterday. It protected the Missouri Valley Shipyards, working on a $7,500,000 government boat building project. Two hundred sandbaggers got out safely.

A leaking dike also imperilled Sherman Air Force Field near old Fort Leavenworth. Troops first were evacuated, then fresh flood fighters were rushed in for a last ditch stand.

At Kansas City, more businesses in the industrialized bottomlands got ready to move in a hurry if they have to. Col. J. L. Lincoln, district army engineer, said there was no reason for them to be alarmed.

Flood Hits Peak Today At St. Joe

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP) — The flooding Missouri River reached its peak here early this morning, equalling the 1881 record of 27.2 feet. Then it started to fall as the crest moved downstream.

The crest was reached about 4 a.m., the weather bureau said. By 7 a.m. the stage was down to 27 feet even. Flood stage here is 17.

Through it all, Missouri's third largest city was unscathed. Water never entered the city proper, which is built on high ground.

The water and light plants held out. So did the sewer system. At Lake Contrary, overflow water fell an inch and three-quarters early this morning.

At Kansas City this morning, the river stood at 29.1 and river forecaster E. C. Corkill said it would crest near 31.5 tomorrow evening barring more heavy rain. Flood stage is 22 feet at Kansas City.

Last year's record flood pushed the level up to 36.2.

As the crest moved downstream it was expected to reach Atchison, Kan., about noon at a level of 32.6 feet. The stage this morning was only a tenth of a foot under that. Flood stage there is 22.

At Leavenworth Kan., the river stood at 27.5 this morning, heading toward an expected crest of 28 to 28.5 by about midnight tonight. Flood stage there is 19.

Corkill gave these crest figures for points downstream from Kansas City:

Napoleon, 23 feet this morning, crest might be above 25. Flood stage there is 17.

Lexington, 27.4 this morning crest between 30.5 and 31 feet early Saturday. Flood stage 22.

Waverly, 26.1 this morning, crest of about 28 Saturday morning. Flood stage 18.

Boonville, 25.1 this morning, crest between 29.5 and 30 next Monday. Flood stage 21.

Jefferson City, 22.9 this morning, crest between 29.5 and 30 by Tuesday. Flood stage 23.

Rains in the Grand River basin raised the stage at Gallatin this morning to 11.2, far under flood stage of 20. At Chillicothe, where flood stage is 24, the stage was 17.9. Corkill said the stream would reach bankfull at Chillicothe about tomorrow morning.

At Sumner, in Chariton County, it stood at 24.8 this morning and is expected to go near 29—three feet over bankfull — by late tomorrow or early Friday.

Ike Has Big Win Over Taft In Penn. Vote

Delegates, However, Divided Differently, Run Taft Near Even

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's whopping popularity poll victory in the Pennsylvania primary prompted demands by his backers today for a lion's share of the state's 70 GOP presidential nominating votes.

But backers of Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, the general's chief opponent for the Republican nomination, called the results "meaningless" so far as the division of convention votes is concerned.

Eisenhower, completing his duties as NATO military commander before returning to the United States, banged out what may be on the final count a 700,000-vote victory over Taft in the popularity race. Former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, on the ballot with Eisenhower, trailed in third place in the primary election yesterday.

It was a one-sided contest from the start since Taft kept his name off the ballot and urged his backers not to write it in. He said the results wouldn't affect the delegate lineup.

However, in head-on contests for eight delegate places from the Pittsburgh area, an Eisenhower slate had won four and a Taft slate one, with three races still in doubt.

Of 52 other delegates elected by districts yesterday and 10 chosen at large previously, Associated Press polls showed that 17 lean toward Eisenhower, 16 are favorable to Taft, 19 are uncommitted and 10 races are not yet settled.

In the Democratic balloting, Sen. Estes Kefauver, the Tennessee coonskin-cap campaigner continued his practice of walking off with popularity contests.

But his preference primary victory over President Truman, who says he isn't running again, gave Kefauver no guarantees on any of the delegates on the 70-vote group which will go to Chicago publicly uncommitted. Many had signed pledges they will support the popular choice, but the pledges are not binding.

Eisenhower's sweep was impressive in the Republican popularity contest despite Taft's avowed efforts not to become involved as a candidate.

Returns from 7,194 of the state's 8,421 precincts showed:

Eisenhower, 728,476
Taft, 128,149
Stassen, 100,389

In the Democratic contest, where there was no name on the ballot and all votes were write-ins, Kefauver got 46,274 votes and Truman 12,580 from 5,923 of the 8,421 precincts.

Eisenhower was third on write-ins, with 10,186 votes. He was ahead of such Democratic candidates as Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma, 85; Richard Russell of Georgia, 872, and W. Averell Harriman of New York, 874. He topped Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, who said he "could not accept" a nomination but drew 1,651 votes, and Vice President Alben Barkley, 361, who has been silent on his plans.

One Phase Phone Strike Settled

NEW YORK (AP)—One phase of the CIO Communications Workers of America contract dispute with the Bell Telephone System was settled today.

However, only limited progress was reported in negotiations involving the larger group — 6,000 CWA members in the sales division of the Western Electric Co., manufacturing subsidiary of the Bell System.

Bernard J. Forman, federal mediator, said the agreement must be ratified by 1,300 production workers and cafeteria help in the three Bell laboratories at New York, Murray Hill, N. J., and Whippany, N. J.

The mediator said that the new one-year contract, effective last Monday, will mean pay increases of $4 to 17 a week.

Charges On Steel Industry

Sen. Morse Says It Would Saddle America With Old 'Feudal System'

WASHINGTON (AP — Senator Morse (R-Ore) accused the steel industry and other big business today of trying to saddle America with a "feudal system," while the administration took two more steps toward decreeing a pay increase in the government-seized steel mills.

Morse and CIO President Philip Murray both denounced the steel companies at a Senate Labor Committee hearing, Morse saying that big business is cheating the American people "in the name of private enterprise."

The other developments:

1. The White House formally confirmed reports that the National Advisory Board on mobilization policy, made up of representatives of industry, labor, agriculture and the public, had decided pay raise recommendations from the Wage Stabilization Board, which the steel companies refused to accept, were within the established WSB pattern.

2. Secretary of Commerce Sawyer, the government boss of the steel mills, announced that as soon as he gets definite wage and price recommendations from Economic Stabilizer Roger L. Putnam, he will carry them "promptly" to Truman for approval.

Morse accused industrialists of trying to put the burden of their companies' expansion on "the backs of the common people."

"They talk about ethics in the government," he went on, "but how about these lavish expense accounts, their whisky accounts, their entertainment accounts, their hotel and lobby accounts?"

By claiming such expenses as costs deductible from taxable income, Morse declared, American business is conducting a "lavish, unwarranted expenditure of the taxpayer's money" and "they" are now "working for a federal sales tax to put the burden of all this on the common people of America."

Morse lashed out at a committee investigation of the deadlocked steel dispute. CIO President Philip Murray was on the stand.

Murray had just said the government has allowed more than 12 billion dollars in fast tax amortization benefits for new plant construction since the Korean War started but that during all of World War II the fast tax write-offs amounted to only five billion.

Morse said "the taxpayers are building the plants for the steel companies and giving them to them."

President Truman meanwhile stuck to his guns in his seizure of the steel industry despite a House member's proposal to impeach him, and other attacks from Congress.

A powerful Senate drive to force him to cancel the seizure order fell just short of the two-thirds majority vote it required yesterday. But its Republican backers led by Sen. Knowland of California redoubled their cries of "dictator" and cast about for other devices.

Actually 47 senators, 11 of them Democrats, voted for the move, and only 29 voted against it. Not a Republican voted "No". A switch of four votes would have provided the two-thirds margin needed to suspend Senate rules and permit action on Knowland's proposal to forbid the use of any federal funds in the seizure.

The Senate Banking Committee ordered a new investigation into government handling of the steel dispute, which many of its members have denounced vigorously.

But the group quit talking about reprisals that might demolish the whole wide structure of wage and price controls, although it called a month's delay in the writing of a bill to continue them past the June 30 expiration date.

Kansas Grain Dealer Tells of Fee Demand

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Kansas grain dealer swore today that a government surplus property official, now dead, demanded a share of his profits on storing grain at Camp Crowder, Mo.

The witness, V. M. Harris of Ft. Scott, testified he verbally agreed with the late W. B. Smith of Kansas City to give away 35 per cent of his Camp Crowder profits at a time Harris was seeking renewal of his lease on government-owned buildings.

But, Harris told a Senate Agriculture subcommittee studying shortages of government - stored grain, he backed out of the deal upon the advice of his attorney.

Sedalian Slightly Hurt In Mishap With Train

Reuben H. Blankenship, 409 North Park, was injured slightly Tuesday afternoon when he walked into the side of the Lexington Branch train at the intersection of Park and the Missouri Pacific tracks.

Blankenship was treated at the Bothwell Hospital by Dr. J. W. Boger. The doctor described his injuries as two small cuts on the back of the head.

After treatment Blankenship was dismissed.

The accident was reported to Sedalia police at 4:15 p.m.

SEDALIANS FIGHTING THE FLOODS—Among the more than 5,000 soldiers participating in the Army's Task Force Flood, now battling the raging Missouri river in four states, are two Sedalia soldiers. Big Muddy Not So Muddy; Snow Fails to Gather Silt

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Upstream observers say the "Big Muddy" doesn't seem quite so muddy in this year's Missouri River flood.

Army engineers believe the reason is this:

The current flood had its origin in the snow and ice fields of the Dakotas. Unusually warm weather sent the water cascading from every slope.

But it didn't take much silt with it, because the ground was ice covered underneath the snow. Results: not so much mud as the flood got its start.

Apparently the river didn't start adding to its normally heavy silt load until it got farther downstream.

Here are some other sidelights on the current flood:

While the water is boiling along down below, the upper air is "rather stagnant," the weather bureau says. That's what makes the shower condition hang on.

1881 Flood a "Piker"

"Up to now," said one of the engineers at the army's flood headquarters, "we've always looked on the 1881 flood as the grand daddy of them all on the upper Missouri. This one may make that flood look a little sick."

At Kansas City and farther downstream, however, the current flood is not expected to reach record levels.

Finds 2 Full Gas Tanks

Mayor Ferd Filger of Riverside, a filling station operator, discovered two 150-gallon gasoline tanks floating free in the flood. He pursued them in a motorboat for about a mile and finally got them tied to a tree. The tanks are full.

16,000 Acres Flooded

More than 16,000 acres of farmland below the Liberty Bend bridge were flooded yesterday when farm levees collapsed.

Heavy timbers were used last night to close a 10-foot gap in the concrete flood wall protecting the Kansas City, Kan., water plant. Missouri Pacific tracks also were tipped up so an earth fill could be built across that opening in a secondary dike at Fairfax.

Stockpiles of Dirt

Stockpiles of dirt were being built up in the Fairfax district—just in case.

Most industries in the central industrial district also started moving machinery and goods out of basements—just in case.

And the Bell Telephone Company set up plans to have cable disconnected and equipment moved within four hours—just in case.

Research on Flood Cause

Even while the flood goes churning downstream, research goes on to find out what makes the river act that way.

Col. L. J. Lincoln district engineer at Kansas City, said the present flood—in miniature — is being run through a model of the Missouri River in the Corps of Engineers experiment station at Vicksburg, Miss.

Results of the tests figured in the decision to build extra "flashboarding" protection on top of certain levees at Kansas City.

More Soldiers Into Fight

Twelve more Fifth Army units were moving into the Kansas City area today, 1,340 officers and men assigned to Kansas City, Kan., an 1,550 officers and men assigned to Kansas City, Mo.

Some of the Kansas City, Mo. men are billeted at the American Royal Pavilion, others at the Army Records Center. The Kansas City, Kan., units are at Fairfax Air Base.

It's Slim's For An "Honest" Meal

Most people thought Slim Benson would probably go broke when he first started his system of letting customers figure out their own checks over at his big diner on the highway.

Slim trusts them to pay for as much as they eat—you simply tell Sally, his cashier, the amount of your bill. It works, too. Take the other day when Buck Harris told Sally his bill was 35¢.

Now I was right there with Buck and I knew all he had was coffee and pie which comes to a quarter. "How come thirty-five cents?" I asked Buck. "Had an extra cup of java the other day, Joe, and forgot all about it—'til now," he says.

From where I sit, most people are basically honest — and that goes for their opinions, too, even though they may be different than our own. I like a glass of beer with my dinner; you may prefer something else . . . but we all ought to be allowed to "figure it out" ourselves.

Give the little lady a hand

THIS ad is addressed to husbands—husbands who've yearned for the thrill of sitting behind a broad hood packed with horsepower—and the pride of rolling down the street in a car that tells the world, "Here's a man who knows the finest thing on wheels."

But husbands have wives. And wives have been known to say, "No big cars for me. They're too hard to handle."

Well, we have an answer for that one. It's a ROADMASTER with Buick's new Power Steering.† And Power Steering takes over any time the steering gets tough—works like a helping hand—reduces the effort of turning the wheel of a car at a standstill to about the same effort it takes to pick up a mink coat.

BUT out on the open highway—with a clear straight stretch before you—your hands still have command of the wheel—you can feel that sure, firm, easy and eager responsiveness that's a part of the fun of driving.

The rest of the fun is in something else that's new this year—the highest horsepower that a Buick Fireball Engine has ever delivered — and an Airpower carburetor that lets loose an extra reserve of power when needed, and still adds extra miles to your cruising range on each tankful of gas.

So we suggest a family demonstration. You'll both like the hushed and restful silence of this superbly able traveler. You'll like the harmonious beauty of its interior, and the deep and luxurious softness of its seats.

You'll like the velvet-gloved grip of its Wide-Band brakes, and the most capacious trunk in Buick history.

You'll like the smooth surge of Dynaflow Drive, and you'll like—but why waste time talking, when you could be finding out more than we can ever tell you? How about making a date to do that right now?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. White sidewalls optional at extra cost when available. †Optional at extra cost on Roadmaster only.

Cat Scratch Disease New One for Humans

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

CLEVELAND (AP)—A new human disease, cat scratch disease, was reported today to the American College of Physicians.

Humans often get it after being scratched by house cats. The cats are perfectly healthy themselves. But the disease is caused by something, maybe a virus, carried on the cats' claws.

This ailment apparently is not uncommon, said Dr. Worth B. Daniels of Georgetown University School of Medicine, and Dr. Frank G. MacMurray of Washington, D.C. They reported 60 cases in 15 states and Hawaii and Canada.

A few days after being scratched humans get sick, They get a fever, which may run to 104 degrees, and last a few days to five weeks.

Lymph nodes of glandular kernels in the armpits, neck and groin may swell to the size of golf balls or small oranges. Often they break down into abscesses, with release of pus. The nodes may stay swollen and tender for seven weeks to six months.

Humans feel sick, with poor appetite, weakness, nausea, aching, chills, and headaches, some show a small skin rash.

The humans always recover, but may feel ill for six months. No treatment is known yet.

Seneca Policeman Exchanges Gunfire With Crowd at Jail

SENECA, Mo. (AP)—City Marshal Russell Hardee reported today he had exchanged gunfire with a group seeking the release of a Seneca man from the local jail.

The 34-year-old officer said the incident ocurred after he had arrested the man on a charge of drunkenness.

Hardee said a group of about 35 persons first demanded that Police Judge Vernon McCorkle release the prisoner and later they gathered around the jail, finally dispersing.

The officer said that early today he exchanged gunfire with several men in a car near the jail. No one was reported hit.

The Newton County sheriff and the Missouri State Highway Patrol are investigating the incident.

The festival will be held in the Ward Edwards Library, and an additional attraction will be puppet shows, storytelling hours, shadow boxes and stories written and illustrated by members of the class.

The purpose of the festival is to show the students of these classes the procedure for holding book fairs, because they are recognized as one of the best activities to stimulate reading and book buying in the community, student officials said.

The court granted her an annulment.

Anna Maria Leads What Some Teen Agers Call Dull Life

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—No dates, no games, no lipstick. Anna Maria Alberghetti, the Italian girl who sings like an angel, leads what other teen-agers might consider a devil of a life.

Anna, who gave her first concert at 6 and is an international celebrity at 15, flies through an aria with the greatest of ease. But the training that goes into her voice is no easy matter. Some of the restrictions on her life are due to the nature of her work, and some are self-imposed.

Such as dates. Anna has never had one. Doesn't want to go out with boys, either. How come?

"It just doesn't appeal to me," she replied blandly. "I don't see any fun in going out with boys. Right now I would rather devote all my time to my career."

She doesn't wear lipstick, except when she's before the cameras or the concert footlights. This edict is also her own doing. "I don't like lipstick," she said. "I think it's bad for the lips."

As for exercise: "I can't play anything strenuous, such as basket-ball. If I do, I perspire. If I perspire, I might catch cold. If I catch cold, I wouldn't be able to sing."

Anna's life is pretty much laid out for her. She must spend three hours in school every day, taking lessons from a studio tutor. Two or three other hours are taken up with vocal and piano lessons. Now she's even learning to dance and will perform a number in her next picture, "The Stars Are Singing," with Lauritz Melchior.

But you don't hear her complaining about the rigors of being a concert soprano. In fact, she's a bit amazed at the freedom that U. S. teen-agers have.

"In Italy, most girls do not have dates until they are 18 years old or more," she remarked. "In this country, girls even leave home and live by themselves when they are 18. Italian girls never leave home until they get married. And if they never get married, they stay anyway."

Another thing she can't get used to: the teen-age car drivers. "When an American boy gets into high school, he wants a car," she remarked. "An Italian boy would never think of asking for one. Italians are too poor to buy cars for their children."

Among the other things I found out about Anna was that she can't sing opera in the morning.

"Oh, I could if I got up early enough," she said. "But it takes about three hours for the voice to warm up enough for singing anything of a serious nature. Of course, I can sing popular numbers in the morning. I envy singers like Bing Crosby who can sing any time."

Her admiration for the groaner, with whom she appeared in "Here Comes the Groom," is boundless. She told of teaching him an Italian song for a broadcast with him recently.

"Bing doesn't know a word of Italian," she marveled. "But all I had to do was go through it once for him, and he knew the song. He's amazing!"

Russian Readers Learn of Dunkirk: 'Hitler Pulled Out'

MOSCOW (AP) — Russian readers got the Soviet dope today on the British evacuation from Dunquerque.

Neither heroism nor skill got the British troops off the sands of France — Hitler let them get away on purpose, wrote the Russian Navy newspaper Red Fleet.

The Fuehrer issued orders to let the British troops get away, the paper explained, in hopes this would speed up an Anglo-German agreement on a joint war against the Soviet Union.

Red Fleet said further:

"The myth on the 'heroic feat' of the British fleet at Dunkerque was needed by the English falsifiers of history in order to conceal the truth from their own people and the world public."

Jack Christopher Dies at Warrensburg

WARRENSBURG — Jack Bunn Christoher, 43 years old, manager of the Warrensburg and Pertle Springs Water Company, died unexpectedly Monday night after a heart attack suffered at the home south of here in the Pirtle Springs community.

Mr. Christopher was the grandson of the late Colonel J. H. Christopher, who operated Pertle Springs, once a widely-known resort in this area. He was born in Warrensburg and had lived here most of his life. He attended Kemper Military school and Rolla School of Mines, where he was a member of the Sigma Nu Fraternity. Mr. Christopher also was a member of the Elks lodge, the Warrensburg cemetery board and the Johnson County library board.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Sallie Parker Christopher of the home; a daughter, Miss Jane Christopher, Dallas; a son, Parker Christopher, student at Illinois Institute of Technology; two sisters, Mrs. Harry F. Parker, 801 Armour boulevard, Kansas City, and Mrs. M. C. Draper, Pertle Springs; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion J. Christopher, Warrensburg.

Funeral services will be held at 4 o'clock Wednesday at the Presbyterian Church in Warrensburg.

Chinese Reds Still Smarting From '51 Loss

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — Chinese troops in Korea are "still smarting" from the beating they took in their 1951 spring offensive, Gen. James A. Van Fleet said today on the anniversary of that offensive.

That Red onslaught lasted a week before the Chinese masses were stopped north of Seoul. Their casualties were tremendous.

The bugle blowing Chinese had attacked along a front a few miles south of the present line under orders to drive United Nations forces out of Korea.

Van Fleet said today he was sure the Reds don't have "any idea of launching another offensive." But if they did try it, he said, his Eighth Army would finish it "very probably further north than the present static line."

"I have been asked by the Associated Press to comment on the first anniversary of the Communist spring offensive launched last April," the U. N. ground commander said.

"I can say with confidence that I am convinced the enemy still is smarting from last year's bitter experience. We whipped him when he tried to throw us off the Peninsula last April and we made our victory stick with our May counter-offensive. I am certain he wants no more proof that the Eighth Army is in Korea to stay until such time that authorities on high international levels agree otherwise.

"I feel sure that the enemy doesn't harbor any ideas of launching another offensive which would be finished by the Eighth Army and attached United Nations forces very probably further north than the present static line. I doubt if he is foolish enough to make another abortive attempt."

Dynamiters Blast Two Holes In Dike, Flood 2,000 Acres

ORRICK, Mo. (AP)—More than 2,000 acres of farmland have been covered by the Missouri River here, after two holes were blasted by dynamiters in the Hull's Point levee two miles west of Orick.

Dick Dale Jr., Ray County prosecutor, said the dynamite apparently was set by persons who sought to relieve pressure on another levee downstream.

Four or five explosions occurred, said residents yesterday. Sheriff E. W. Craven said that three charges which failed to explode were found buried near the gaps. Each charge consisted of 25 sticks of dynamite with fuses and caps, said the sheriff.

Predict Truman Chooses Ike Successor In Days

NEW YORK (AP)—A European NATO official predicts President Truman will make his choice today or tomorrow from among three American generals—Alfred Gruenther, Matthew B. Ridgway and Omar N. Bradley—for an NATO commander to succeed Gen. Eisenhower.

Gruenther is Eisenhower's chief of staff; Ridgway is U.N. commander for Korea, and Bradley is chairman of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff.

The high official, who is kept informed of major NATO actions, would not allow publication of his name in connection with his forecast. He said the choice of a new commander will be completed by the NATO Council in Paris next week.

Model Airplane Contest July 20

The board of directors of Sedalia Chamber of Commerce voted to again sponsor the Model Airplane Contest which will be held in Sedalia on July 20.

Jud Grayson, director of the recreational committee, will be in charge of the event and will appoint his committee later.

The contest last year brought between 50 and 60 entries from all over the State including several from St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Joseph and Jefferson City.

This is part of the youth program in Sedalia and the Sedalia youngsters have a keener interest in model airplanes this year because of the opening of the Sedalia Air Force Base.

U. S. Blacklists 61 West German Firms

BONN, Germany (AP)—The U. S. High Commission has blacklisted 61 West German firms suspected of selling strategic material to Soviet bloc nations.

American officials said the Bonn government plans to prosecute some of the firms for violation of currency and export regulations if the illegal trade charges are confirmed.

Western officials have said that this illegal traffic amounts to at least 50 million dollars a year.

European Gypsies Can No Longer Roam, Say Reds

VIENNA (AP)—The Communists behind the Iron Curtain have ruled no more roaming for Europe's nomadic, dark-skinned Gypsy race.

There'll be no more soul-searing Gypsy music to tempt city-dwellers to cast off their bonds and take to the road. Gypsy palm-readers are informed only the Communist state can tell what the future holds.

The Romany are to be made "useful members of Soviet society." Their sparkling-eyed children will be taken from their uneducated parents and sent to state schools to learn trades. Their parents will be persuaded by various pressures to leave their caravans and lazy card-playing and put to work in factories producing for the "great peoples' democracies."

This is the communist plan being carried out, according to reports reaching Vienna, on the Hungarian plains and in the wooded mountains of Czechoslovakia and Romania, where thousands of Czigany have wandered for centuries.

Reports from behind the Iron Curtain, however, say that the Communists are not finding it easy.

In Hungary, the government tried to entice the Gypsies to become farmers. It allotted many Gypsies ground under the land reform. But the wanderers left their fields uncultivated. They continue to try to eke out an unauthorized living from their old profession—tinkering, horse-dealing, fortune-telling and stealing.

Hungarian authorities, reports say, are doing their best to wipe out such independent Gypsy activities. Gypsy tinkering and trading are free enterprise and thus discouraged.

In Czechoslovakia's eastern provinces, the Communist regime demolished the clay huts where the Gypsies gathered in winter and drove out their occupants.

Gypsy children, reports say, have been taken from their parents and sent to trade schools. The parents, by police pressure, have been made to work in new plants.

But, say the reports, the illiterate, liberty-loving wanderers do not stay on the job. They do not work at the jobs given them. They continue to move, despite the police and the lack of rations for those who fail to fill their production quotas.

Laymen from the church will go there Saturday to be present for the laymen's meeting and Tom Yount will be one of the speakers for the session.

The convention will bring together approximately 1,500 ministers laywomen and laymen representing about 200 local churches from all sections of Missouri. The program includes special addresses, a forum, a panel, a symposium, parallel conferences and special breakfasts, luncheons and dinners. There are nearly 128,000 members of the Christian Church in the state.

Leadership for the four-day assembly will be shared by churchmen and churchwomen both from within the state and from other areas. Among the other prominent out-of-state speakers are: Mrs. Mae Yoho Ward, executive secretary of the Department of Latin America of the United Christian Missionary Society, and the Rev. Dale W. Medearis, national director of the town and country church for the Disciples of Christ.

Among Missouri church leaders on the convention program are the Rev. Dr. Hampton Adams, minister of Union Avenue Christian Church, St. Louis, who will discuss the "National and World Councils of Churches" at the dinner meeting on April 25.

Interdenominational workers are featured on the convention program. "County and State Councils of Churches" will be discussed April 25 by the Rev. Morris H. Pullin, executive vice-president of the Missouri Council of Churches. The Rev. Dr. O. Walter Wagner, executive secretary of the Metropolitan Church Federation will also speak April 25, discussing, "Characteristics of a Cosmopolitan Church." Two other interdenominational leaders scheduled to speak are the Rev. George H. Wilson, executive secretary of the St. Joseph Council of Churches, and the Rev. J. Allen Watson, general secretary of the Kansas City Council of Churches.

Robert F. Kennon Is New Governor Of Louisiana Today

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Robert F. Kennon of Minden is Louisiana's new governor—to no one's surprise.

The Democratic nominee swamped his Republican opponent, Harrison Bagwell, the first GOP candidate in 12 years, in yesterday's general election. C. E. Barham, state senator from Ruston and the Democratic choice for lieutenant - governor, also was elected without trouble.

The two top state posts and 11 seats in the Legislature from New Orleans were the only spots where the GOP entered opposition to the Democrats in this traditional one-party state.

The Democratic nominees for these legislative posts, five in the Senate and six in the House, didn't have any trouble being elected, either.

Kennon's inauguration is scheduled for May 13.

No state-wide tabulation of the voting was recorded but the count in Orleans parish was representative. Kennon got 44,508 to Bagwell's 2,184.

The U. S. steel industry used a record 105 million tons of coal in 1951.

Allies Accuse Reds Dodge Main Issues

Munsan (AP)—Allied truce negotiators accused the Communists today of dodging the main issue blocking arrangements for enforcing a Korean armistice.

The Communists replied there would be "no progress at all" unless the United Nations Command changed its attitude.

The exchange ended a 19-minute session of staff officers at Panmunjom. No progress was made toward settling truce supervision disputes—Communist nomination of Russia as a neutral inspector and Allied insistence the Reds be barred from repairing military airfields.

It appeared more and more that the truce supervision negotiators were awaiting outcome of secret negotiations in a neighboring tent on prisoner exchange. The prisoner session lasted two hours. There was no report on what happened.

During negotiations, Allied artillery shells burst in a brief but heavy barrage near the Panmunjom neutral zone. The concussion shook the wooden floors of the conference tents.

Col. Don O. Darrow opened the meeting by telling the Communists the U.N. Command had proposed solutions for the two remaining problems "and we now await action on your part."

North Korean Col. Chang Chun San replied Russia met the qualifications of a neutral. He said the airfield debate would be ended if both sides "adhere to the agreements" ...ot to bring additional military equipment, including aircraft, into Korea during an armistice.

"I find," Darrow said, "that your side still evades the main (airfield) issue before us. You have merely repeated arguments which do not pertain to the argument."

"To be frank," Chang retorted, "I believe that there will be no progress at all unless your side changes your attitude not to resolve issues confronting us."

On that note they recessed until 11 a.m. Thursday (9 p.m. Wednesday EST.)

Bus Tips Over, But None Hurt at Liberty

LIBERTY, Mo. (AP)—An Overland Greyhound bus carrying 13 passengers tipped over on its side last night after hitting a soft shoulder on Highway 10, about one mile southwest of here. No one was injured.

The driver, Edward E. Woods, Kansas City, Kan., said he swerved the vehicle to miss an oncoming motor car.

Another bus arrived about 15 minutes after the accident and took the passengers to Liberty.

John Q's First Look at New White House Wins an Ovation

WASHINGTON (AP) — "Wonderful." "Beautiful." "Magnificent."

That's the reaction of John Taxpayer, his wife and the kids today to their first in-person look at the reconstructed White House.

They had read about the $5,700,000 cellar-to-garret rebuilding job, and they had seen published pictures of the new interior. But not until yesterday did all comers get a chance to see for themselves what the carpenters and decorators had done with all that tax money.

And the exclamations of delight would have gladdened the heart of householder Harry Truman if he had come over from the executive offices to hear them.

"I saw the old White House six years ago and I saw the new one today," said Mrs. Mabel Hargrave of South San Francisco, Calif. "It's much more beautiful now. The chandeliers are magnificent."

"It's simply beautiful," agreed Mrs. Clarence L. Fox of Hammond, Ind. "I couldn't say what impressed me most—the flower arrangements, perhaps. I'm going through again and have another look!"

All told, 5,544 persons were clocked in the first public showing of the new decor. They came from all over the country and from lands as far away as Iran and India. Reporters who mingled with them heard barely a word of dissatisfaction.

Serve Canned Dog Food To Children

MONTREAL (AP)—A local welfare worker says some low-income families in Montreal are serving their children canned dog food in sandwiches.

Nan Garvok, of the Montreal Diet Dispensary, told of the new low-budget practice today and said some grocers reported their sales of canned dog food had doubled in recent years.

"We feel repulsed by it, although it's perfectly harmless," Miss Garvok commented.

Sir Hubert Wilkins made an attempt, in 1931, to explore the Arctic ocean in a submarine.

Little Activity Just Year After Big Commie Drive

SEOUL (AP)—Light patrol contacts and probes rippled across the Korean battlefront today as Allied soldiers soberly observed the first anniversary of a massive Red offensive.

The Communists showed little willingness to repeat the punch they threw last April 22-23.

An Eighth Army staff officer said only five small Red probes were reported.

Allied warplanes continued saturation raids on the battered Red supply lines Wednesday. The U. S. Fifth Air Force said Communist MIGs offered no opposition.

U. S. F-86 Sabre jets returning from uneventful patrol sweeps in Northwest Korea helped fighter-bombers shoot up Red supply points.

B-26 light bombers and B-29 Superforts pounded Communist rail and road targets Tuesday night.

Navy headquarters in Tokyo said Allied warships and carrier-based planes Tuesday gave North Korea's East Coast its worst pounding in months.

Red shore batteries opened up on the battleship Iowa, flagship of the U. S. Seventh Fleet. The Navy said there were 17 splashes near the big battlewagon, but no hits and no damage.

The Navy said carrier pilots silenced the red guns.

Quito, Ecuador, Cut Off by Communications

GUAYAQUIL, Ecuador (AP)—All communication with Quito, capital of Ecuador, ceased last night and three hours later efforts to reach the capital still were without success. Quito radio stations also could not be heard here.

It was speculated that the blackout could have been due to a power failure or to a political upheaval. With presidential elections scheduled for June, political conditions have been more tense than usual recently.

Tax Lien Filed Against Garsson

NEW YORK (AP)—A tax lien for $1,556,205 was filed by the government yesterday against Henry M. Garsson, wartime munitions manufacturer who served a prison sentence on war contract fraud charges.

A similar claim for unpaid taxes, amounting to $235,848, was filed against Garsson here recently.

Internal Revenue Collector Denis J. McMahon declined to discuss the case as he filed the new lien in Brooklyn Federal Court yesterday.

Last January, a tax lien for $379,085 was filed against Murray W. Garsson, Henry's brother, in Manhattan Federal Court.

Both brothers served prison sentences for bribing Andrew J. May, then a Democratic congressman from Kentucky, to obtain influence for their munitions business.

Asks Congress Make Truman Powers Plain

NEW YORK (AP)— A plea that Congress make "plain and explicit by law" the President's powers to seize private property was voiced today by the head of the American Newspaper Publishers Association.

Charles F. McCahill, ANPA president and general manager of the Cleveland News, cited in a prepared address the recent seizure of the steel industry and President Truman's remarks on the possibility of taking over news media.

McCahill welcomed delegates to the 66th annual convention of ANPA, which met in its first general session today. The convention, part of Newspaper Week, opened yesterday with limited meetings.

McCahill in his opening address said the publishers should "give every attention" to the questions in the steel conflict "of the rights of private owners, the rights of the public interest, and the 'rights' claimed by the federal government."

"In response to a question at his press conference only last Thursday," McCahill continued, "the President of the United States stated that depending upon circumstances at the time the President would determine whether or not it was necessary to take over the newspapers and the radio stations x x x .

"This incident does make plain that it is the responsibility of every American citizen to make sure that the powers of the President x x x with respect to seizure are made plain and explicit by law."

Lions Learn Of Schools' Need for Levy

The Sedalia Lions Club Wednesday noon heard Harry Brougher, member of the Sedalia school board tell of the need for the school levy to pass at the special election called for April 29.

Brougher explained the levy is not an increase over the tax of 1951. He said the board is asking Sedalia only to give to Sedalia schools the $2 levy paid by the taxpayers last year. The election Tuesday he explained is for 75 cents in excess to go along with the $1.25 levy the board is allowed, bringing the total to the same $2.

He also informed the Lions the school board contracts to the teachers have been sent out calling for an eight months school with a nine months option should the levy pass. Failure of the levy will give Sedalia school children only eight months of school.

He compared Sedalia's school tax levy with other districts in Missouri. Some districts, he explained, are paying $4 and more.

During the period of questioning several of the Lions took the floor in favor of the bond issue and explained it is absolutely necessary for each and every member to get out and vote, and to take additional voters who favor the levy to the polls next Tuesday. Another asked if it were not true the $2 levy is the "rock bottom" Sedalia schools could be operated on, and the answer was yes.

At this point Mr. Brougher pointed out the school board by law has a right to set the $1 levy. The voters of Sedalia several years ago voted a bond issue which called for a 25-cent levy. But it is necessary to vote the 75-cent levy to give the school system at least $1.75 for operational expenses.

The speaker was introduced by Don King, program chairman. King also announced the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a Clean-Up and Fix-Up Week, starting May 4.

Next Wednesday night the Lions will hold their first picnic for 1952 at the Paul Hedderich farm, three miles north of Sedalia on Highway 65. The picnic arrangements committee is headed by Bernard Stanfield, who made the announcement.

Post Commander Walter McMullin of Post 16, American Legion, was introduced by Pete O'Brien and he gave a short talk on Boys State. The Lions Club voted unanimously to sponsor a boy to be sent to Boys State at the Kemper Military School in Boonville in June.

Other guests at the meeting were Jack Spurrier, of John Ellison, Lion Lawrence Barnett, Marshall, and former Lion George Curnutt, of Harold Seaberg.

President Seaberg presided over the meeting.

Hold Decision In Referendum For Few Days

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — If you're planning on running for Congress you might just as well wait a couple days more.

By then you should know whether you're running at large or in a regular district—whether Secretary of State Walter H. Toberman accepted or rejected the referendum petitions of the Republican state committee.

The Republicans said all along if the Democratic controlled Legislature shoved across the redistricting bill they sponsored the GOP would force a referendum—and make all candidates for Congress run at large this year.

Toberman said last night that the first count by his staff indicated the Republicans had made good their threat. But, he said the question was so important he wanted to make a personal recheck before he gave a final decision.

Court decisions have indicated that about all the Secretary of State can do is to use an adding machine in counting the signatures. He can't question any of the names or their eligibility to sign a referendum petition. That is a right only of the courts.

Toberman said he should have a decision by Thursday or Friday. The Republicans started the referendum move because they said, the bill gave the Democrats nine districts and left the Republicans only two.

So far, only a couple dozen Republicans and Democrats have filed for Congress. But it is expected that whenever the potential congressmen know whether they're running on a statewide basis or by district they'll hurry in to file their candidacies. They have until the April 29 deadline to get in.

Toberman said his staff found little to argue with in the Republicans' unofficial check of their effort.

There were about 80,000 names on the petitions and that gave them the necessary number in at least 11 of the 13 old congressional districts, Toberman said it appeared. The law requires that they get enough names in only nine districts.

Toberman's staff found that the Republicans got this many signatures in Missouri by congressional districts (the number they needed in each district in parentheses):

First District 5,274 (4,897), Second 6,675 (5,845), Third 6,127 (6,124), Fourth 6,883 (5,867) Fifth 2,356 (5,401), Sixth 6,735 (6,185), Seventh 6,353 (5,656), Eighth 5,948 (4,240), Ninth 6,151 (4,590), Tenth 4,883 (4,758), Eleventh 3,499 (7,576), Twelfth 15,167 (4,343) and Thirteenth 5,685 (5,283).

Area Schools To Receive Aid Under New Bill

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Requisitions for the release of $324,001 in state funds to 19 reorganized school districts for central school buildings were filed today by Hubert Wheeler, State Commissioner of Education.

Gov. Forrest Smith signed the appropriation bill carrying $1,500,000 from the postwar reserve fund for such aid only last week. Districts where the building program has been completed will participate in the funds now, Wheeler said. Other districts will receive state aid when they complete their building programs.

The law provides aid to reorganized districts for erecting new central buildings and adding to present facilities.

The districts to get aid under today's order:

Hume R-8 in Bates County $4,863, Centralia R-6, Boone County $11,909, Camdenton R-3 in Camden County $6,608, Carrollton R-7, in Carroll County $17,732, Buncetion R-4 and Prairie Home R-5 in Cooper County $25,000 each, Osborn R-0, DeKalb County $7,618, Roy R-8, in Douglas County $20,000, Spring Bluff R-15 in Franklin County $25,000, Ash Grove R-4 in Greene County $11,830.

R-7 in Jefferson County $25,000, Farmers High R-2 in Johnson County $20,420, Concordia R-2 in Lafayette County $22,042 Southwest City R-3 in McDonald County $11,722, Stover R-1 in Morgan County $25,000, LaMonte R-4 in Pettis County $7,600, East Platte R-4 in Platte County $25,000, Malta Bend R-5 in Saline County $25,000 and Cedar Creek R-7 in Taney County $6,656.

Non-Union Painters Painting Capitol Dome; No Picketing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Non-union workers start painting the Capitol dome today and the AFL Painters Council can't quite figure what to do about it.

Pickets are forbidden on Capitol Hill. And since a strike of federal employes is illgeal, the union is barred from calling its men off other government jobs here in protest.

The council had under consideration one noval suggestion: a plane could be hired to fly over the city trailing a protest sign — so congressmen could see it.

The union also considered going ahead with picketing or a strike of painters on other government projects here to test the constitutionality of the no-strike ban.

David Lynn, Capitol architect, said the dome-painting job was awarded to L. B. Brown & Co. of Alexandria and Roanoke, Va., because it submitted the low bid of $38,000. The law requires that the low bidder get the job, regardless of whether he uses union or non-union labor.

Robert C. Lowry, secretary-treasurer of the union, said the council's painters had kept the dome shining for the past 60 years and has men especially trained for the hazardous job nearly 300 feet above the ground.

Jet Fighter Plane Launched from B-36

WASHINGTON (AP)—The launching of an F-84 jet fighter plane from a B-36 in flight has been announced by the Air Force.

It gave only that bare statement in reply to inquiries about a story in the Ft. Worth Star-Telegram saying the big bombers now can carry jet fighters inside their A-bomb bellies, launch them in the air and recapture them in flight.

Asked about the recapture of launched planes, the Air Force would not comment.

The Star-Telegram said the historic flight was made last Friday.

The F-84 model F has a weight ranging up to 25,000 pounds, a maximum speed of more than 600 miles an hour, a combat radius of more than 850 miles and can carry bomb loads up to 4,000 pounds.

Savings Due On Clothing,

NEW YORK (AP)—Families fighting the battle of the budget are being promised further savings in shoes and clothing.

Prices of most spring lines are down from last fall and the new lists for next fall now being announced show even further cuts.

This follows the drop of raw wool to below pre-Korean levels, and the drop since January of worsted fabrics to about pre-Korean levels. These cuts will show up in suits next fall and spring, reflecting the time lag between the mill and the store. But suit makers warn that the rise in labor and other costs will keep suits from following wool all the way back to pre-Korean prices.

Retail prices of cotton textiles have dropped in the past year, and may continue on the downward side for some months, according to Louis M. Bernstein, merchandise administrator of Macy's New York store. He tells the Association of Cotton Textile Merchants of New York, however, that textile prices at the mills should now be around the bottom and the second half of this year should see some firming in prices.

Shoe prices reflect the worldwide slump in the price of hides — one of the sharpest declines of any commodity. Some hide prices are the lowest since the spring of 1941.

Merchants report pre-Easter shoe sales good this year. Sales usually drop off after Easter. But many in the trade expect a pickup in both the making and sale of shoes later in the season, since invitories are reported low.

One shoe jobber says he is buying fall lines of children's and misses' shoes at 20 to 20 per cent below year-ago prices. A maker of men's work shoes announces a five per cent price cut, his fourth reduction in 15 months. A mocassin maker, his spring line priced $1 a pair lower at retail, says sales are running 75 per cent ahead of a year ago.

But a maker of women's novelty small price cut at wholesale, doubts if the merchants will pass it on at retail. He notes that retail profit margins have been shrinking and thinks merchants will need the saving for themselves.

Heavily Populated

Although the 14 islands of the Cape Verde group would hardly take up the space of Rhode Island, they have a population of more than 150,000.

It's a Wild Cat

The eyra is a wild cat, found in South and Central America, from Brazil to northern Mexico. Though it is about as big as an ordinary cat, it has an elongated body and is reddish in color. It is said to attack fowl.

Valuable Plumage

The quetzal, a bird of Central America, became a symbol of the Maya "god of the air," and its plumes were adopted as the emblem of all rulers, whether gods, kings, or high priests. As a result, tail feathers of the quetzal became more valuable than gold.

No Sabotage With Anthrax

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. B. T. Simms, chief of the Agriculture Department's Bureau of Animal Industry, said today the government had found no evidence that sabotage was involved in recent outbreaks of anthrax among livestock.

Some of the outbreaks among hogs in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois have been traced to commercial feed given the animals. The feed contained bone meal which had been imported from Belgium.

This led to speculation, Simms said, that enemy agents might have planted the disease in the imported bone meal. The Federal Bureau of Investigation, as well as other government agencies, checked the possibility. But nothing has been found to support any such belief.

Nevertheless, proposals have been advanced by some state veterinarians that the federal government restrict the importation of bone meal to prevent possible sabotage.

Simms said his bureau has not yet been able to ascertain whether the imported bone meal or some domestically-produced feed was the source of the disease.

He said the United States itself has many sources of anthraz infection. Soils in wide areas of the country are infected with the disease spore and grazing animals often contract the illness if they are not vaccinated.

Bones from domestic animals which die of the disease often are processed into meal. If fed to livestock, such meal could cause infection.

The disease can be spread many other ways — by wild beasts that eat carcasses of animals killed by the disease, for example, and by birds and flies.

Simms said closing the door to imports of bone meal would not assure farmers protection because of the many possible domestic sources of the disease. Only about 10 per cent of the imported supplies are used in livestock feed. Most of it is used in industry.

A MOST PREVALENT AND COSTLY DISEASE "MASTITIS"

In casting about for some timely animal health topic, several things have come to mind. Blackleg and and Malignant Edema are diseases that occur at this time of the year, during the rainy season, but this was briefly covered last week—actually this is not much of a problem since vaccination will prevent it. If you have not vaccinated against Blackleg you should do so at once. Blackleg vaccine is one of the so called specifics that work almost 100%. It costs only 12c a dose.

Sheep should be thoroughly wormed and then fed Phenothiazine-Salt mixture. Hogs should be wormed now, and it is a good time to worm your laying hens.

Mastitis is one disease that knows no season. Septic and acute Mastitis are easily recognized by a hot swollen udder, milk secretion is usually scanty and often stringy, watery and/or bloody. In septic Mastitis the cow has chills and high fever, eats little or not at all, is weak and not able to stand and may die within just a few days if not treated. Chronic Mastitis is however, the most prevalent form of the disease. Most times this form can be detected by changes in the udder such as caking and in the milk being stringy and off color from blood. In cases that are questionable in your opinion, you may bring in a sample of the milk in a sterile container and we will run a Hotis test without charge. (This test requires 24 hours of incubation, so for that reason we do not want you to bring in the sample on Saturday).

As you remember in the olden days before the "Sulfas" and "Penicillins" there were many cases of Mastitis that destroyed the quarter or the entire udder of good cows. But today with these miracle drugs you can successfully treat a high percentage of the cases of Mastitis. Early detection and prompt treatment are very important. We stock Penicillin Ointment, Aureomycin Ointment, Penicillin and Streptomycin Ointment and the latest addition to the family Penicillin, Streptomycin and Bacitracin Ointment.

Treatment alone is not the answer to mastitis control. Injury is the most frequent cause and mastitis may be contagious, so, good herd management must be used.

Browns 'Byrne Up' Indians, Hand Them First Loss, Move Up to Top

By JACK HAND
AP Sports Writer

You might say the St. Louis Browns "Byrne up" the Cleveland Indians.

Tommy Byrne, the ex-Yankee wildman who found control on the banks of the muddy Mississippi, can't stand to see the Tribe on a winning war dance.

Last August the Indians came ot St. Louis with a wampum string of 13 straight wins. Along came Byrne. And then there was none. Last night the Indians brought a year-record seven-game win streak to town. Once again Mr. Byrne got out his old lefthanded tomahawk. No record. No win streak. Almost no lead.

Byrne's eight-hitter and 8-3 victory left the Brownies only a half game behind the front-running Tribe. It was enough to make a crowd of 15,119 sit through a drizzle.

Mike Garcia, one of Al Lopez' "big four," was the loser. He couldn't keep the upstart Brownies under wraps. Neither could three other pitchers that Lopez dug out of the bull pen.

When the Browns' early 3-0 lead narrowed to 3-2 on Al Rosen's homer in the seventh, Hornsby's giddy crew piled up five more runs in the seventh.

Another budding streak was kept alive when Chicago dumped Detroit, 2-0, for the Tigers' eighth straight loss. Five more and the Tigers can tie their own major league record of 13 consecutive defeats at the start of the 1920 season.

The "new faces" campaign continued to pay off for Lou Boudreau's Boston Red Sox as rookie Bill Henry, a 24-year-old lefty from Shreveport, won his second straight, 10-5, over Washington. Jim Piersall, the kid shortstop, collected three hits and Dom DiMaggio had four, including a home run.

Johnny Sain, once a curve ball ace in the National League, came through with a fine three-hitter for the New York Yankees to hand the Philadelphia A's their sixth straight loss, 3-1. After Elmer Valo homered in the first, Sain retired 20 in a row before he walked Ferris Fain to open the eighth. Heine Majeski singled in the eighth and Valo beat out a bunt in the ninth for the other hits.

Those Chicago Cubs continued to act like the toughest kids in the block as they hammered Pittsburgh pitching for 17 hits in a 13-2 romp. Dee Fondy was the ring leader of the mob with four hits while Bob Rush rode home easy with a nine-hitter.

Brooklyn threw its southpaw punch against the Boston Braves again and swept a twi-night doubleheader, 2-1 and 3-1, behind Chris Van Cuyk and Preacher Roe.

Bobby Thomson, starting to hit after a slow start, racked up the Phils' Russ Meyer with a triple with the bases loaded in the New York Giants' 4-1 win. Larry Jansen scattered eight hits and had a shutout until Willie Jones homered in the eighth. Thomson and Davey Williams each had three hits off Meyer and Jim Konstanty.

Vinegar Bend Mizell, the St. Louis Cards' colorful southpaw rookie, lost his first start to Cincinnati, 2-1. Two walks and a booming triple by Joe Adcock in the first inning gave Cincy all its runs. Kenny Raffensberger strung seven Card hits along the route.

Levi Softballers To Practice Thursday

The Levi softball team will hold practice Thursday at 5:30 p. m. Practice will be held on the Center Park diamond, 16th and Center.

Trading and Rebuilding Soon If Tigers Keep Losing Streak

DETROIT (AP)—You'll see trading and rebuilding for sure if the almost-hitless, clawless Detroit Tigers keep staggering.

The club hasn't won a game yet. No other major league team can say that.

"But we're not panicky yet," said General Manager Charley Gehringer today.

His Tigers were generally picked for a first division berth in the American League. But yesterday the Tigers stumbled to their eighth straight defeat and third shutout. The White Sox beat them in Chicago, 2-0.

"This would have to go on for awhile before he would start wholesale rebuilding," Gehringer said. "The ball club is better than it looks.

"But if the losing does go on, of course, we'll rebuild. And mostly through trades to get younger players."

Six more consecutive losses and the Tigers would break the record for the worst start in the history of the major leagues.

The record-holding 1904 Washington Senators and the 1920 Tigers lost their first 13 games.

The Tigers battled the White Sox 0-0 for 7 1/2 innings with Chicago's Saul Rogovin and Detroit's Ted Gray pitching.

Gray was the victim of some shaky support in the eighth, the inning that the White Sox got their two runs.

Again the Tigers got a well-pitched game. And again they didn't hit.

"We'll win a game any day now. But it begins to look like our pitcher that day will have to pitch a shutout," said Gehringer, grinning wryly.

"And it may take extra innings before we get the winning run."

Just what kind of rebuilding does he plan?

"I couldn't say who we would give up," he said. It might be anyone. But whatever we do, we want to avoid getting any more older players on our club."

Indict Saigh For $49,620 Tax Evasion

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Fred M. Saigh of the St. Louis Cardinals and a business associate of the late Robert E. Hannegan, former postmaster general, has been named in a federal indictment charging income tax evasion of $49,620.

The federal grand jury accused the 47-year-old attorney in a surprise action yesterday. He is charged with evading taxes on $108,823 unreported income for the years 1946 through 1949.

There had been no suspicion that Saigh was under investigation.

In 1947, after his co-purchase of several St. Louis buildings, he became a national figure when he became a part owner of the Cardinals. Then in 1949, he bought controlling interest in the ball club, replacing Hannegan as president.

Saigh had been a member of a syndicate headed by Hannegan which purchased the club from Sam Breadon. Hannegan died in October of 1949.

The indictment against Saigh carries five counts providing a maximum penalty, if convicted, of 25 years imprisonment and a total of $50,000 in fines. Each of the counts cites a maximum penalty of five years in prison and $10,000 fine.

The grand jury which returned the indictment is the same jury which indicted James P. Finnegan, resigned St. Louis internal revenue collector.

Two of the counts claim alleged discrepancies in Saigh's personal income. A third claims a fraudulent return on the corporation's income when he served as vice-president of the ball club.

Two other counts accuse him of filing fraudulent joint returns for himself and his wife.

Saigh had little to say about the indictment other than it came "as a complete surprise."

"I knew an investigation had been going on," he said, "but I was of the opinion the case was in process of settlement. This is a personal matter and has nothing to do with the ball club."

Tigers Dislike Manager Rolfe

CLEVELAND (AP) — The winless Detroit Tigers dislike their manager, Red Rolfe, with "a bitterness that can't help but affect their play," Plain Dealer Sports Editor Gordon Cobbledick said today.

Writing in his column, "Plain Dealing," Cobbledick said this feeling is "beyond the understanding of an outsider" because: "Red Rolfe is a newspaperman's delight. He is intelligent, well-educated and a gentleman. If a popularity poll were taken among members of the working press, Rolfe would be a cinch to land among the top three major league pilots."

"But he hasn't won the esteem of the ballplayers," Cobbledick continued. "On the contrary, the Tigers' anti-Rolfe feeling is so deep and so violent that some close observers have gone so far as to predict a blow-up comparable to the 'Vitt rebellion' of the 1940 Indians.

In that year, a number of the Cleveland Indians tried to have Oscar Vitt fired.

Cobbledick, who said he doubts such a repellion would take place at Detroit, continued:

"But it seems apparent now that the Tigers aren't going to perform well under Rolfe — not because they would shirk on the job, but only because their acute unhappiness will make it impossible for them to play winning baseball. How well they would perform under another manager is a question."

Because of the different usages of the word "mist" (in the official British meaning a light fog, and in the U.S. vernacular, a synonym for drizzle), the weather services of the United States have not used the term in official observations and reports since 1939.

Tigers Sweep 3-Squad Meet At Jeff City

The red-hot Smith-Cotton track team won another meet Monday at Jefferson City beating the Jays and Hannibal. The Tigers racked up 48 points, Jeff City 43, and Hannibal 26. Floyd Burton of Sedalia was the high point man for his team again with 15, as he won the high and low hurdles and the 100-yard dash.

Harold Hughes, Sedalia 440 man, won his event in :56.1, when Chester O'Bannon was disqualified for cutting in on a Jeff City man.

Sedalia took ten first places and eight seconds. Other first place winners were—Ford, shot put and discus; Shepherd, mile; Schultz, pole vault; Stephens, half mile; and the mile relay team of Thomas, Stephens, Hughes and O'Bannon.

Second place men for Smith-Cotton were—Ferguson, shot put; Schultz, high hurdles; Brown, mile; Lane, broad jump and low hurdles; Shepherd, half mile; Rathburn, high jump; and the half mile relay team consisting of Case, Young, Thomas and Murphy.

Tuesday's scheduled meet between the Tigers and Warrensburg Public High was postponed because of a rain-soaked oval in Warrensburg.

Roe Mad Over Many Rules Made to Help the Hitters

BROOKLYN (AP)—Preacher Roe, the usually mild-mannered Brooklyn Dodger southpaw, was mad—good and mad.

"Those guys out there," he asked of nobody in particular, "What do they want of us pitchers?"

It was difficult to determine at first who Roe was complaining about. For that matter, it was difficult to determine why he was complaining at all. What would a pitcher who has won 24 of his last 27 decisions over a two-season span have to complain about anyway?

Roe wiped some of the sweat off his brow, gulped down a mouthful of pop and then lit into the rule makers.

"During the last eight years they've done everything they could to hinder the pitcher. Every rule they've made during that time has been to help the batter.

"First they juice up the ball. Nobody can tell me the ball hasn't been livelier in the past few years than ever before. Then they bring in the fences. Then they pass a rule making the webbing of the fielder's gloves smaller. That indirectly hurts the pitchers.

"That's not all. They cut down the strike zone. They allow the batters to crouch halfway down to the floor. They let the batter step out of the box whenever they feel like it. If a pitcher should decide to take time out in the middle of his windup, they call a balk on him."

"They insert a new balk rule in the book, forcing the pitcher to change his style of delivery.

"Another thing. Have you ever seen an umpire call a strike when a batter takes a half swing? There's no such thing anymore as a half swing strike. They're automatic balls. The batter has to go all the way around for the umpire to call a strike."

The Preacher rose to get under the showers.

"Just wait and see," he said over his shoulder. "The next thing you know we'll have to tell the hitters what we're going to throw them."

Hoppe Vows Enthusiasm Gives Victory

NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Hoppe, silver-haired cue master, gave out today the recipe which he says is responsible for bringing him 48 world billiard championships in 47 years—the longest reign in sports.

"I never once lost my enthusiasm," said the 64-year-old king of the green velvet tables, who plans to retire this year. "I never quit training. I have always hated to lose, always had a burning desire to win."

Hoppe won his first championship at the age of 9—at 18.1 balkline billiards—and his last in March of this year when he beat the world's finest for the three-cushion title in San Francisco.

"During that time I have seen countless champions come and go," the billiards wizard said after an exhibition match with Japan's veteran Kinrey Matsuyama. "I have seen some bloom and go quickly, others last for years.

"Most champions in any sport—boxing, baseball, football—are inclined to go soft and contented after they've once reached the top. They trip over their own prosperity. They don't last long.

"But there are others whom I regard a lot like myself—men with such fighting hearts that they can't stand to lose or be second-rate.

"John McGraw, the old Giants manager, was one of these. He was one of my very best friends. He couldn't stand defeat. He fought every inch of the way. Ty Cobb, of course, was another in baseball.

"In golf, you have to take Walter Hagen and Ben Hogan. They reached the top but they never let up. They were relentless, dogged scrappers.

"Jack Dempsey was that way in the ring and Paul Brown, the Cleveland coach, is that way in football. Brown is the perfectionist. He's always scheming and working on new methods to win.

"They lose graciously — these men—but if you could see inside them you would find their stomachs all chewed up. They couldn't stand to be licked. Neither can I. I'm 64. I've won them all and yet I bear down in an exhibition just as hard as if a world championship is at stake."

Hoppe is a well-preserved 64—clear-eyed, pine-straight and with fingers as steady as those of a concert violinist. He dresses immaculately, is poised, patient and self-assured.

"I train for every important tournament or match just as a boxer for a prize fight," the billiard king said. "I do road work and take long walks.

Two Corrections Made In City Job Listings

The name of John Neitzert was listed as the scavenger of the City of Sedalia among the appointments made by the City Council Monday night. Mr. Neitzert stated he had not made application for the job, nor could he accept it since he is moving to the country May 1. He is a candidate for the state representative nomination on the Republican ticket.

O. E. Ritter was listed as an appointee for the fire department, but Mayor Herb Studer reports this is incorrect.

Officials who were named by the Council Monday night are to take over May 1.

Jeff City Jays Play Tigers Here Thursday

Old Man Weather is playing havoc with the Smith-Cotton Tigers baseball schedule. Today's game with the Columbia Kewpies of Hickman High School was called off this morning because of rain at Columbia where the game was scheduled.

Thursday the Tigers are scheduled to meet the Jefferson City Jays on the Liberty Park diamond. Their first meeting two weeks ago was postponed because of rain. A return game to Jefferson City for these two teams is slated for Monday, April 28.

A sub-district tournament between Hickman, Smith-Cotton, Jamestown and Eugene may be played this weekend. However no information has been received by Smith-Cotton regarding the tournament dates.

Sub-district and regional tournaments are to be played after which winners will go to the State High School Tournament in St. Louis on May 22, 23 and 24th.

Tuesday's Sports-In-Brief

By The Associated Press

BASEBALL

PHILADELPHIA — Connie Dempsey, who once bore a $100,000 price tag as a right-handed pitcher, was sold by Phillies for an undisclosed amount to Seattle.

Cleveland — Indians purchased pitcher Mickey Harris from Washington for the waiver price of $10,000.

PITTSBURGH — Pirates optioned outfielder Gus Bell to the Hollywood club of the Pacific Coast League.

DURHAM, N. C. — John W. (Jack) Coombs will retire Aug. 31 after coaching baseball at Duke for 24 years.

GOLF

PINEHURST, N. C. — Walker Cup members Dick Chapman and Jimmy McHale were eliminated in the first round of the North and South Amateur Tournament.

BASKETBALL

PHILADELPHIA — Paul Arizin, NBA scoring champion, ordered to report for further physical tests after taking an Army examination. Arizin said he had been drafted into the Marine Corps pending outcome of his re-examination.

MILWAUKEE — Clyde Lovellette, Kansas' All-America, will join Phillips Petroleum Co. June 1 as a salesman in the chemical department. Milwaukee Manager Ben Kerner said he turned down $50,000 offer to play pro ball.

TENNIS

HOUSTON — Eight seeded players, led by Vic Seixas and Dick Savitt, advanced in River Oaks Country Club Tournament.

BOXING

WASHINGTON — Harold Johnson of Philadelphia, the nation's third ranked light heavyweight, was suspended indefinitely by the National Boxing Association for failure to fulfill engagement against Clarence Henry.

RACING

NEW YORK — Hull Down ($37.90) made his 1952 racing debut a successful one in winning $10,000 Omaha Handicap at Jamaica with a 1:45 1-5 clocking for a mile and one-sixteenth.

BOSTON — Royal Marvel ($9.00) stepped six furlongs in 1:11 1-5 in taking top event at Suffolk Downs.

LAUREL, Md. — Kinsman ($7.20) clocked in 1:11 3-5 for six furlongs as he won the Glen Burne Purse at Laurel.

Marty, Rajah Have Browns In Top Form

NEW YORK (AP)—Vagrant quotes—lost, strayed and stolen:

Casey Stengel, Yankees Manager—"It's that shortstop fellow (Marty Marion) who has given the Browns their big lift this year. He's getting old all right, but it's been years since the Browns had a good man there. Also that Hornsby (Manager Rogers Hornsby) has the boys all fired up. They could be tough.

Fred Corcoran, sports promoter—Who do you think is going to be the highest money-earner in sports this year—Stan Musial, Jersey Joe Walcott, Sugar Ray Robinson? No, sir, it'll be golfer Ben Hogan. Besides his regular earnings and that bus company settlement for his accident (reportedly $25,000 a year for 10 years), Ben is picking up about $5,000 a week on exhibitions.

Chuck Dressen, Dodgers manager—It's getting harder than ever for major league clubs to keep a good man at every position. The old guys like Joe DiMaggio are wearing out and the armed services are grabbing the young men who ordinarily would be topflight replacements.

Gene Sarazen, former golf champion—Don't be surprised in the next few years if all our golf champions have degrees. With caddy carts and other gadgets replacing caddies, the best players now are coming from colleges rather than the bag-toting ranks.

Rocky Graziano, middleweight fighter describing his historic bouts with Tony Zale—Whne Tony went to work on my body it felt like he was pouring concrete blocks at my stomach. After every fight with him I had to go to the hospital to stop internal bleeding."

George Weiss, Yankee general manager after ex-Yankee Bob Porterfield had set the champs on their ears—We're not sorry we traded him to Washington for Bob Kuzava. We had Porterfield in our organization for six years and he didn't do us any good. Kuzava helped us win the pennant last year."

Whittier PTA Is Told About Summer Plans

Whittier PTA met Friday afternoon with P. A. Sillers, principal of Horace Mann, as guest speaker. Under his subject, "Summer Recreation," he stressed the value of the swimming lessons given each summer at the swimming pool. He also explained the importance of the Little League which is being organized.

Ted Williams Believes BoSox Can Get Along

BOSTON (AP) — Slugger Ted Williams, who changes his baseball uniform for that of a Marine flyer next week, disagrees with the experts who predict his departure will wreck the Boston Red Sox.

"There never was a 1-man team in baseball history," Williams said. "No club ever had an indispensible player. I have a feeling the Red Sox are going to surprise a lot of people. I can see them finishing as high as first place, certainly no worse than fourth. And that's allowing time for the youngsters to add polish."

Williams expressed regret that a pulled tendon in his left leg has prevented him from playing regularly so far this season.

"I was beginning to feel good up there at the plate, eager to help the club away to a good start and than I got this pulled tendon," Williams explained. "But I'm hopeful I'll be able to play a few more games before I report at Willow Grove, Pa., on May 2."

"Baseball has been wonderful to me," he continued. "I wouldn't say I ever had a bad season during my 10 previous years with the Red Sox. I have a lifetime batting average of .346 and I'm the last to hit over .400, back in 1941 when I went .406.

Green Ridge Jr. Fair Committee Starts Planning

The executive committee of the Green Ridge Junior Fair and Show met under the direction of the president Bob Dinker, the Vo-Ag instructor, on April 22 in the new vocational agriculture building on the Green Ridge High School grounds.

Members of the committee present were Bob Dinker, Bill Allspaugh, Moman Dowdy and James Perry. Dennis Brownfield and Charles Lee Dowdy, the other members of the committee, were unable to attend.

The business discussed principally concerned superintendents, judges, fair rules and regulations, constitution and by-laws, classes and possible number of entries and home economic classes.

Entries in the show will be limited to boys and girls currently enrolled in the Green Ridge FFA and vocational home economics or 4-H club work, and residing in the Green Ridge School District R-8.

Chaplain Speaks To First Baptist Men's Brotherhood

Colonel Tunis S. Cordill, supervisor of chaplains of the strategic air command, here on a routine visit to Sedalia Army Air Base in the interest of chaplains' work, was the speaker Tuesday night at the regular monthly meeting of the Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church. His command includes all strategic air force bases through the southeastern United States and one base in Puerto Rico.

Col. Cordill discussed the work of chaplains and the experiences he had when he served as chaplain in Egypt during World War II. He was the first American chaplain on duty in Egypt at the time Gen. Rommel was knocking at the gates of Alexandria. He was then sent to Palestine and he told of very interesting experiences in his work as chaplain in that area.

He spent the first three years of the U. S. occupation in Japan and related some of his personal observations during that time. He also served in Korea before the conflict there.

Tech. Sgt. Lawrence Willey, assistant chaplain at the air base and welfare specialist, accompanied Colonel Cordill to the meeting.

A program was presented by Donald Hofheins, who sang a solo, and Carlisle Hume, who played a trumpet solo. They were accompanied by Judith Case.

The meeting, which was attended by 48 men, was presided over by Oscar DeWolf, president.

Carlton Kelley, membership vice president, introduced the guests and new members.

Why the right power is so important to truck buyers

When a truck engine is too small for the job, you'll pay in poor performance and high upkeep. When it's too big, you'll waste money on operating costs.

To be sure of the right power on every job, Dodge builds eight great truck engines. There's one "Job-Rated" to fit your work.

In fact, you get a truck that's "Job-Rated" in every way. Every load-moving unit is factory-engineered to meet the most severe operating conditions. And every load-carrying unit is factory-engineered to provide the strength and capacity needed.

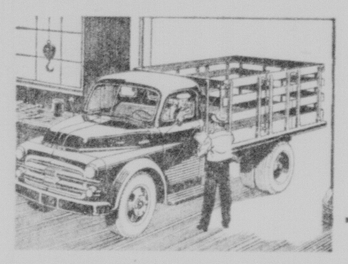

We'll gladly tell you all the facts about Dodge "Job-Rated" trucks.

Records show low upkeep. For dependability and low repair costs, rugged Dodge truck engines have 4-ring pistons with chrome-plated top ring and heat-resisting exhaust valve seat inserts.

Tests prove power with economy. To save gas, powerful Dodge truck engines employ compression ratios as high as 7.0 to 1. And on high-tonnage models, a twin carburetion and exhaust system is used.

Owners report, "Greater value!" You get all these plus values: Cyclebond brake linings; easier handling, sharper turning; gyrol Fluid Drive available on all ½-, ¾- and 1-ton and Route-Van models.

"When power is needed, Dodge trucks have it!"

...says C. R. SHEARMAN, Hood Construction Co., Lynwood, Calif.

"We've been big Dodge users for many years, because our business demands trucks that are dependable, economical and rugged.

"We do most of our driving over rough ground, a lot of it in the mud. The trucks work with crews who are laying pipe in the field. This kind of hauling calls for plenty of power to carry equipment to the men.

"And when power is needed, Dodge trucks have it! They seem to be able to pull anything."

Quotes Ike On Controls, Tax Powers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was quoted today as saying the government's answer "to excessive control is more control" and that there has been federal "abuse of the taxing power."

Sen. Carlson of Kansas, who is supporting Eisenhower for the Republican presidential nomination, said the general recently made the statements in a letter to a friend. The senator did not name the friend in a speech prepared for delivery at a Rotary Club meeting here.

Carlson said the statements he quoted are examples showing where Eisenhower stands on domestic issues. He added the general has made his views known "equally clear on a great number of our fundamental issues," and that opponents who say he hasn't are making "such false charges for only one reason: They see the nomination slipping away from them and they are desperate."

Carlson said Eisenhower wrote:

"Extravagance in public spending brings ever-increasing taxes—taxes which if long continued will strangle incentive, the very quality that built the nation. Meanwhile, the government debt rises. The value of our money becomes the football of politics—subjected to the political whim of the moment . . .

"The government penetrate more and more into our daily living; its answer to excessive control is more control. In this whole process, the abuse of the taxing power has been one of the chief weapons the government has used."

Meanwhile, Sen. Nixon of California urged Eisenhower to "repudiate unequivocally" President Truman's seizure of the steel industry.

"As a candidate for the Republican nomination he should do so just as soon as he goes on inactive status June 1," Nixon told a reporter.

Nixon, who is backing Gov. Earl Warren of California for the nomination, said all aspirants for the presidency should make their position known on the controversial seizure issue, and that most of them have.

Couple Travels With Circus, But Has Home Life

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Elsie and Paul Jung are a devoted, home-loving couple. Elsie likes to sew and Paul likes to tinker.

The main difference between the Jungs and thousands of other quiet, domestic American couples is that the Jungs' home is the circus.

Paul is a clown and Elsie is an equestrienne. Eight months of the year they are on the road with Ringling Brothers - Barnum and Bailey. But whether home is a railroad car or a theatrical hotel, Paul and Elsie manage to make it look—and feel—like home.

Wherever she goes, Elsie's portable sewing machine goes with her. She makes costumes for the midgets in her spare time, or runs up other odd wardrobe needs of the circus not supplied by the regular costumers. Once she had to make a horse with two heads.

For four months in the winter the Jungs settle down in their Tampa, Fla., home and Paul goes to work in his own factory, where he makes circus props such as the outsize papier mache heads worn by some of the clowns, or anything else from a miniature train to reproductions of Christopher Columbus' ships.

Circus folks say the big show couldn't operate without the Jungs. Whenever anything seemingly impossible is needed, Paul and Elsie between them manage to supply it.

Elsie and Paul met when both were with the Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus, back in the early 30's. Elsie worked as an aerialist as well as expert rider then, and Paul was following his favorite role of clown.

They've been with Ringling Brothers 16 years. During the winter Paul figures out his next season's clown act, working with other clowns. He writes and directs the material, then tries it out on Elsie. If she laughs, it's good. Says he:

"We always try to make the act topical. The main thing is you've got to keep it smple, and the clown always has to get the worst of it in the end."

"The reason we all stay on with the circus, I guess, is that there's no thrill on earth like that first big, roaring laugh from the audience on opening night—if the act is good."

About 16 to 20 per cent of U. S. production goes into capital goods.

Ike Still Sick Abed

PARIS (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower still was abed today with a cold and throat infection and aides said it was "impossible to ask his comment on results of the New York and Pennsylvania presidential primary elections.

Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, surgeon general at Eisenhower's headquarters near here, said the general's condition is improving and "we hope to get him back to his desk tomorrow."

Python Escapes From Carnival

FT. SMITH, Ark. (AP)—An Indian python, 22 feet long, was absent without leave today from a carnival which has been appearing at nearby Mulberry.

Its owner said the snake wasn't dangerous to humans or livestock.

But at Little Rock, Zoo Director Raymond Gray said he wasn't so sure about that.

The non-venemous reptile, which kills its prey with its crushing coils, apparently slithered out of its glass-topped cage at the Moore Shows sometime Tuesday night or early yesterday.

The more daring residents of the little village of Mulberry, armed with firearms and heavy sticks, went snake hunting after the disappearance was reported.

Kansas-State Surgeons Save Life Of Prize Holstein Bull

Seluhm American Boy, probably the best known dairy animal in the state of Missouri, owes his life to the skill of surgeons at Kansas State College.

The 2600-pound Holstein, who left the ring with about every prize shows in this state had to offer last year, suddenly became ill last week as he was being gromed for the American Royal.

His owners, Ledarno Farms at Garden City, Mo. and Ernest and Paul Selken Farms of Smithton, immediately scheduled a series of X-ray tests to determine the mammoth bull's malady.

The test results were startling—the prize animal had eaten a piece of wire which had punctured the lining of his stomach and had entered his heart.

Even in his hour of trial "the Boy" proved to be no ordinary bovine—a special anesthetic was necessary before the doctors could flip 2600 pounds of prize-winner on the operating table, and several tanks of oxygen were needed to pull him through the ordeal.

But he came through like a champion. He is now back on his feet, minus two ribs, and is expected to recover completely.

He will, of course, miss the American Royal spring show, but will be on hand to defend his laurels by fall.

Now that it's over, Boy's owners can take a light view of the operation and the way it came out. As one of them put it—while Boy is a champion show and breeding animal, with hamburger selling for 60-cent a pound he's a "lot of Bull" anyway you look at it.

Russian Works 16 Hours for Enough To Buy 1-lb. Tea

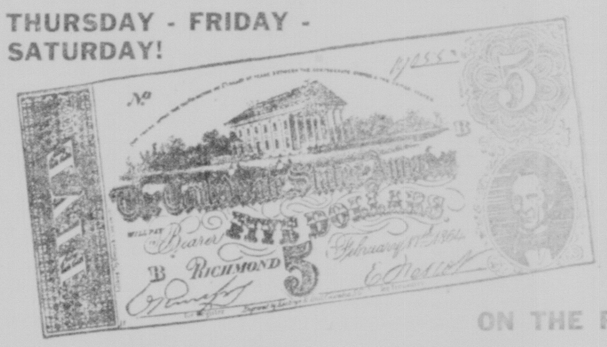

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Russian industrial worker must put in 16 hours to make enough to buy a pound of tea.

He must work two hours and 12 minutes to buy a pound of beef, 4½ hours to buy a pound of butter and an hour and 50 minutes for a pound of sugar.

These figures were released today by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, which has collected data on countries in Western Europe, Russia and the United States. It concludes that the American worker has it the best of all and the Russian worker the worst.

Independent Voter Appears To Have Passing Popularity

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—It looked like 1952 was going to be the independent voter.

Now I'm not so sure. I think the tide may be turning against him.

There is a strong possibility the independent voter has already passed the peak of his popularity.

At the start of the indoor campaign training season experts figured there might be as many as 25 million independent voters this year, and that they would hold the balance of power in the presidential election.

This immediatley made the independent voter the Clark Gable of politics. He was pictured as a high-minded, thoughtful figure who stood above the clamor of partisanship and weighed every issue carefully.

What happened? Well, naturally 99.4 per cent of all living Americans decided they were independent voters. The temptation to stand aloof on the heights, wooed by all factions, was irresistible.

Each man could dream of the following situation: On election day the nation is divided 29,567,843 and as Mr. Jones steps up to ballot the rival statesmen say:

"Mr. Jones, the fate of our country rests on your vote. Whom do you choose?"

"I am an independent voter," says Jones proudly. "On the grounds of patriotism rather than party I cast my ballot for—."

And the naiton dreaks out in cheers. Jones has made history.

The trouble with this pretty dream was that everybody was trying to get into the act. If you had decided to be an independent voter, it seemed that everybody you met had decided to be one, too.

That wasn't any fun. So, gradually, more and more people have decided to go back and be the Democrats and Republicans they always were. And they are having a much better time. They can pitch in and argue for the side they really favor.

Back in the fold themselves, they are beginning to attack the independent voter as a heretic or a fence-straddler afraid to stand up and be counted as a man.

One of these returned party regulars recently gave me this definition of an independent voter: "He's a guy who can't get a job with either party and knows it." And another said: "If you ask an independent voter how he stands on the Taft-Hartley Act, he tells you he stands on the hyphen."

This is mighty unfair, of course, to the conscientious independent voter but as the outdoor campaigning season heats up it looks like he's going to be an even lonelier figure.

There are certain disadvantages to his position. If you are losing a friendly political argument at a cocktail party, and somebody gets you down and starts beating you up you can get rescued by shouting: "Help, I'm a Democrat!" or "save me, I'm a Republican!"

But what would happen if you yelled from the floor: "Help, help, I'm an independent voter!" The other independent voters would just stand there and look at you. Abut all the Republicans and Democrats would rush over and joyously join in kicking you.

That's the danger in being an independent in anything. You may have distant admirers, but you lack first aid in an emergency.

Francis Ketterlin Hurt In A Car Wreck In Illinois

By Mrs. Thomas W. Miller

TIPTON — Francis Ketterlin, well-known here in Tipton, his home town, is a patient at St. Joseph's Hospital in Alton, Ill., being treated for injuries he received in a car accident last Friday. It occured between East St. Louis and Edwardsville as Francis was returning home from a St. Louis business trip.

He received a deep cut in his head and suffered neck and shoulder injuries and is reported as getting along satisfactroily.

Mrs. Ketterlin and sons, Bobby and Billy, who were here for an Easter visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gish and with his mother, Mrs. Pauline Ketterlin, went to Alton when notified of the accident.

Francis engages in concrete finishing work.

Attending a recent three-day fruit and vegetable convention at Oklahoma City, Okla., was Fred Imhoff, general supervisor of the Gerbes Super Market, Inc., and a member of the super market institute which sponsored the convention.

Mrs. O. E. Carlisle and Mrs. Gladys Pulley, Kansas City, arrived in Tipton Tuesday evening. Mrs. Carlisle's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Snorgrass observed her birthday anniversary.

At her home last Thursday evening, Mrs. J. W. Proctor entertained with a stork shower complimentary to Mrs. Tommie Miller. The decorations were in keeping with the occasion. Besides the gift presentations, several games were played. Mrs. Proctor served a dessert luncheon course.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jewell E. Richards is being repainted, also their funeral home. The work is being done by Omer Cordry, Otterville.

Moonshiners Giving Distillers Trouble

HOUSTON (AP) — Illegal liquor distillers — old fashioned moonshiners— are giving legitimate distillers a run for their money.

This was the consensus of representatives of liquor control boards of 28 states at the National Conference of State Liquor Administrators meeting here today.

The price of legitimate liquor, which is being forced upward by increased taxes, is now so high that bootleggers and moonshiners are stepping in to take over the market, Patrick Gleason, deputy commissioner of the New York State Liquor Control Board, said.

The federal government destroed 10,000 illegal stills last year.

Most cases of feeble-mindedness are inherited, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

In many of the lower groups of animals, organs of smell are distributed widely over the body.

Cartwright School Sees Movies of Corn

Cartwright School held it's final Parent-Teacher Club meeting on April 18. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Conaway were hosts for the month, and had John Talbot and Erwin Weichert of the Pfister Company at Carrollton to show two films on plant nutrition and growth.

Some of the most interesting scenes were of the actual process of seeds beginning to sprout, send forth roots and finally the shoots pushing through the earth to unfold into stalk and leaves. Later, the same photography was used to show corn tassels growing and a close-up of their bursting into bloom.

The announcement was made that the school year will be brought to a close with the graduation exercises, to be held at the school in May.

Following the program, refreshments were served.

Circular Fort

A Martello tower is a circular masonry fort designed to form a part of coastal defense. These forts were popular about 1800, but have been discontinued as they were found to be of little practical value.

Men, for First Time, Look Up Into Hollow Heart of Atom Cloud

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
A PScience Editor

ATOM BOMB SITE, Nev. (AP)—For the first time men have lived, unhurt, who stood under and looked up into the flaming, hollow heart of the cloud that rushes upward from an A-bomb.

This happened to soldiers and officers close to the giant explosion yesterday at Yucca Flat.

It also happened to five congressmen who went into trenches with the troops. They are WS. Cole (R-NY), Olen Teague (D-Tex), Melvin Price (D-Ill), Chet Holifield (D-Calif) and Carl Hinshaw (R-Calif).

What they saw and learned is the first chapter in a new atomic chart for survival:

This bomb was greater than anything in Japan or Bikini, and just over or under the most powerful we have fired in the United States. That particular bomb's identity is secret.

The fire cloud followed the fireball, and swelled to miles in diameter, with red flames and yellow gases swirling in whirls bigger than Niagara Falls.

The cloud drifted over the heads of some officers.

"We looked right up inside," said one. "It was hollow, but you could not see daylight through the hole. It was like an umbrella and whirling crosswise like a smoke ring. The inner dome was ribbed with dark and light colors, the dark ones probably nitrogen dioxide."

The desert under the bomb was moist from rains Saturday and Sunday. The flash of heat lasting three seconds—baked this area white, with alkali giving the color.

For more than two miles in all directions hte bomb started fires in joshua trees—a cactus about 10 feet high. There was the smell of scorched brush all around. one temporary first aid shack burned to the ground. The blast that followed the heat flash blew out most of the fires.

The troops—closer than anyone has approached except in Japan—knelt in trneches, two to several in each. They faced the bomb, with heads bowed just below the top of the dirt.

They joked, and they jumped up and laughed afte rth eterrh ilfcfsia of light and heat had passed. But their trenches felt hot for those three seconds.

Then they learned the first lesson—keep your mouth shut. Nearly all were standing still in trenches, looking up, mouths open when the blast drove a wave of dust into their faces.

Every man would have been a burn casualty except for the shadow of the trenches.

A tank was placed almost at the edge of "ground zero," directly under the bomb. The hatch was left open to see what would have happened to men inside. They would have been killed by heat.

Planes on the ground far away had twisted tails or spot burns. Most weapons were not seriously damaged.

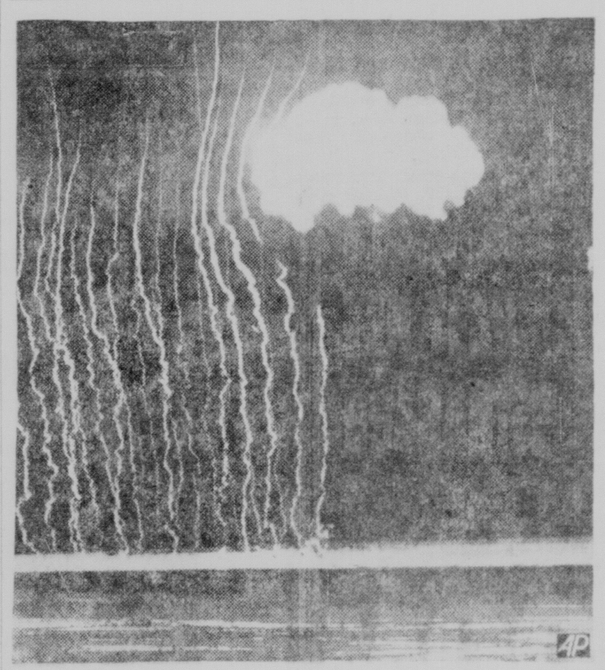

The radioactivity in the ground directly under the blast was so low that attacking troops could have marched in immediately and stayed for 30 hours. One reason was the great altitude of this explosion, 3,500 feet.

The bomb plane missed its target by 200 feet, from 30,000 feet altitude. For atomic weapons that is pickle-barrel accuracy.

Automotive Hint

One way to free sticky valves is to insert the disconected end of the windshield wiper hose into a can of valve oil. Suction will draw the oil to the valve stems, although there will be plenty of smoke because of the oil going through the engine, no harm will be done. When the valves are free the windshield wiper may be connected again.

A normal human skull is composed of 22 bones.

A moment after the nuclear explosion, this huge ball of fire formed in the sky more than 3,000 feet above the floor of the Nevada desert on the AEC's proving ground at Yucca Flat. The white streamers rising skyward are caused by rockets fired almost simultaneously. (AP Wirephoto)

US Has Baby Bombs and Near Giants---Both In Great Variety

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Ediotr

ATOM BOMB SITE, Nev. (AP)—We have real baby A-bombs and also near-giants, and we have them in great variety.

That is the explanation of the many A-bombs that have been exploded here in a little more than a year. Some prove very good, and others not so good when measured by the grim purpose behind all this work, namely to give our Army and Navy bombs that they can use in battle against enemy troops and ships.

This new picture of America's atomic power comes from the numerous briefings by U. S. atomic energy officials and by generals, which set the stage for Operation Big Shot (the military name is Operation Big Horn), the first public exhibition of A-bomb progress here.

Baby bombs are both small in size and small in explosive power, when compared with our first bombs. In size they are still big but getting small enough for firing in big guns and in guided missiles. They are at the practical military stage.

But not so the A-bombs which rate as babies in explosive power. They are not yet useful and no one knows when they will be. The trouble is the present impossibility of gauging their power so that a field commander can shoot them with confidence that they will destroy the objective.

These babies still we be' thousands of times more powerful than a ton of TNT.

The A-explosion comes from bringing pieces of the explosive metal together very rapidly. Slow down this approach and you can get any power from zero to 20,000 tons of TNT. The slow-down, however, cannot be controlled sufficiently.

Here observers who have had to look from 50 miles apparently have seen four different kinds of explosive power.

The problem is illustrated by big shot. In advance the scientists said frankly they could not even guess how powerful it would be. Even the new electronic calculators have missed by fifty percent in estimating the power of some of our A-bombs.

Man Robs Her Home For the Third Time

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Mrs. Hazel Allen, clerk in a cleaning establishment, has lost any illusions she might have had about honor among thieves.

The same man robbed her yesterday for the third time.

He had told her in the second robbery he needed the money for a sick baby and "this will be the last time I'll bother you."

He got $15 April 3, $10 April 7 and $28 Monday.

"He walks in like he owns the place," Mrs. Allen said. "And he will before too long."

The tremendous increase in the world's population in recent years is not the result of a rising birth rate, but of a falling death rate.

For a number of years a pair of robins have built a nest back of the Porter building and people in the offices there have watched the building of the nest and listened to the singing of the happy pair as they flitted back and forth from the nest to the other trees. They have watched the rearing of young ones each year from the hatching of the eggs to the feeding of babies almost as big as the mother herself.

But this year something has happened. The last few days has brought the constant call of the male robin from his tree. All day long he calls, but there is no answer, no little female is on the nest, and the people in the office mourn with him. His little mate has either died or been killed, they are certain, and his constant call is all in vain—she will not return.—H.L.

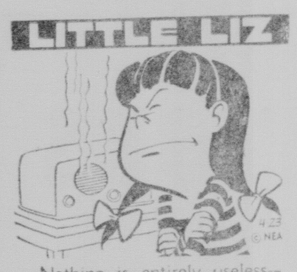

The stork waits for nobody, and where the lady is he has his eye on or what she is doing at the moment matters little.

A woman who had just been informed by her doctor that the stork would not pay his visit for at least another week went to a local beauty parlor for a permanent. She felt very safe and sure when she told the operator she was in no hurry, but could stay the entire afternoon in the shop.

She sat down in a chair and the operator had just put the towels in place in preparation for shampooing her hair when suddenly the customer jumped up exclaiming:

"I've got to go to the hospital—right away!"

And so she hurriedly left the shop. Whether she reached the hospital in time the girls in the shop just didn't know, but they were thankful that things were no worse. What if she had been all done up in curlers attached to a permanent wave machine? It would have been all the same to the stork.—H.L.

An Open Letter to Mrs. George Arnold, Los Angeles

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1951, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

(Ed. Note — Drew Pearson's continuing columns on Eisenhower's work in Europe and the Soviet drive to undercut European defense today takes the form of a letter to Mrs. George L. Arnold of Los Angeles.)

Paris, France
April 21, 1952

Dear Daughter:

I have been sitting in my hotel room looking down at the park next to the Champs Elysees, and watching French children play and thinking of the many times when I have been in Paris before. The children are swinging on swings, riding on a merry-go-round, roller skating, or sitting on bored and dejected donkeys which walk the length of the park and back for 10 francs per promenade.

It reminds me of the time when you and Tyler were very small and we visited Paris. And it also reminds me of other trips when I was a lot younger and more optimistic about the peace of the world.

The first time I came to Paris was after a great war had been fought which we thought was to free the world, when Woodrow Wilson's vibrant doctrine still rang in people's ears and they were convinced that peace could be with us permanently.

The next time I came to Paris was in 1927, en route to the Geneva naval conference which was to carry out the disarmament goals of that peace. Your mother was with me then and we left you behind — so small you didn't recognize me when I returned. But at Geneva, Bethlehem Steel, Newport News Ship and other shipbuilding companies had hired a lobbyist to upset the treaty — because they wanted to build warships. And because the French, Italians and Japanese were also not enthusiastic, he succeeded.

The next year I came back to Paris with Frank B. Kellogg, who, as secretary of state, had negotiated a treaty to outlaw war. I watched the ceremony of the signing of the Kellogg-Briand pact and got a great thrill — as did much of the world — over the idea that at long last it was now illegal to make war.

Seeds of War Planted

My next trip to Paris was during the London naval conference in 1930 — an attempt by a most high-minded secretary of state, Henry L. Stimson, to curtail the weapons of war. But he was not even able to persuade his isolationist chief in the White House—Herbert Hoover — that we should consult with other nations in case war threatened.

That conference was a tragic failure. And with that failure it seemed to me the world started downhill again — toward war. War does not start easily or quickly. The seeds are planted long in advance. They do not sprout suddenly — as when Hitler invaded Poland in 1939. They had been planted perhaps eight or nine years before that invasion. And by the next time I came to Paris they had definitely begun to sprout.

That was Christmas of 1936. You were with me then. But you didn't know, any more than the children playing in the park below my hotel window today know, that the seeds of war were already planted.

As I and certain sigh that they were planted had come in March 1936, when Hitler's troops marched into the Ruhr and Rhineland. With that vital source of iron and steel, Hitler, had the tools of war in his hands, and it was only a matter of time before hostilities started.

Actually the seeds of war had sprouted well before this. They had been nurtured in the soil of depression, bank failures, unemployment, hopelessness. The seeds were really planted when American investors stopped buying European bonds, thereby ending the American subsidy which kept Europe prosperous under Harding and Coolidge and which — though paid in a different form through the Marshall plan — also has kept Europe prosperous under Truman.

When people lose hope they turn to war. And the great depression from 1932 to 1939 had made Europe lose hope.

Milestones To Peace

It seems that most of my trips to Paris have been connected somehow or other with milestones on the road to or from peace. My next trip was for the Paris peace conference in 1946, when Americans generally had great hope for peace — though Europe was skeptical. That was when Jimmie Byrnes gradually saw hope fade—dashed on the rock of Russian recalcitrance. That was also when Europe again began to lose hope.

And when I visited Paris one year later with the Friendship Train, Europe was starving, ships were tied up by mutinous stevedores, railroads were on strike, Communism was on the march, and I have never seen Paris so woeful and discouraged.

The Marshall plan came after that and, despite some of its faults it wrough miracles. Its drive in the right direction is being continued by Eisenhower and the North Atlantic Pact. As a result, there is a note of hope today in Paris.

But, underneath that hope, there is danger. Eisenhower's departure is one danger. Inflation and soaring prices are another. Resentment against America for forcing rearmament is another. Reversing the disarmament policies of Frank Kellogg and Henry L. Stimson, we now tell Europe their only hope is to rearm. Naturally, people don't take this reversal happily — especially when it means higher taxes and higher prices.

World Hangs In Balance

But the greatest danger in Europe today is the intense, extremely skillful propaganda of Soviet Russia against the North Atlantic Army — especially against the dread idea of France and Germany marching together, unified, under the same flag. The Kremlin sees this, as many Europeans do not see it, as the first step toward European unity. And the Kremlin knows that European unity means prosperity, strength and hope. In that kind of soil, also, the seeds of war do not grow.

That's why I think the next few months — during our elections — are so crucial. One more push can put across the unified European army — and, with it, European cooperation. But any number of things can stop it — the wrong President of the USA, more harmful speeches like Tom Connally's, a sudden curtailment of American budgets for European defense, bickering among our allies, or the continued success of Soviet propaganda.

That's why I look down at the French kids playing in the park and wonder whether in 10 or 15 years they will still be enjoying life or marching off to war. If they march off to war, my grandsons also march off to war, and, as General Eisenhower told me the other day, so will his grandsons. That's why the next six months are so all-important. That's why it's going to take a lot of understanding and patience by the American people plus a lot of understanding and patience by our allies in Europe to achieve the great goal that seems almost within our grasp.

With love from

Your Father.

The west half of the 100 block on the south side of West Second was being remodeled and modernized.

A thorough inspection of walls of the courthouse, enclosing the circuit court room, found them perfectly solid, discounting reports that they were cracking. In several places there were cracks in plastering and the plaster had been scuffed to some extent through shifting of furniture being carried in and out, but the walls were perfectly solid.

GEORGE KENDALL looked into the red face of Albert P. Sutworth. The client had come up to George's room after George had received the call from the desk clerk. If ever a man's expression showed anger, Mr. Sutworth's did.

"You have double-crossed me, young man."

"Double-crossed you? Why, Mr. Sutworth! How can you say such a thing."

"Don't try to stall around. I know what you're up to."

"You do?"

"Yes, I do."

"Mr. Sutworth," George's voice was calmer now. "I was just going to send you a telegram, resigning from the case. Your daughter just threw me into a vegetable and fruit stand today."

"She did? I received a phone call from her early this morning. She said she was through with Chief Big Bear and was going to marry a man by the name of George Kendall. That's you, isn't it?"

"Yes, but—"

"So you're going to resign. You don't care for the fee and bonus—you're going to marry my daughter and inherit everything I've got."

"The engagement's off—for the present, Mr. Sutworth. There was an—er—a quarrel after she phoned you. She's gone back to Arno, but I'm no quitter. I'm going after her again tonight."

"Humph. We'll see about that."

"Mr. Sutworth, would you prefer me or Mr. Arno as a son-in-law?"

"I don't want her to marry a hard-boiled private detective. I know all about 'em. I read detective stories. They carry guns. make love to every woman they meet—"

"Then you prefer Mr. Arno?".

"I didn't say that. I don't want her married to a big muscle-bound wrestler with cauliflower ears, twisted nose. Is he bald or does he wear long hair—or maybe it's cut Indian fashion—"

"Mr. Arno is hefty, but not bad looking, Mr. Sutworth. And I don't carry a gun, I don't make love indescriminately, and I'm not hard-boiled."

"You and Arno both are fortune hunters."

"I'm not. I won't have any of your money—I'll make my living as a farmer."

"A what?"

"Your daughter and I want to live on a farm. Now, good-day, sir. I'm off to patch up our quarrel."

George darted out of the door. Mr. Sutworth's alarmed cry came after him, but George was down the stairway and out of the building free of pursuit. George had much to do.

The question is, George thought, will Marilyn react the way he expected her to?

But Marilyn would, if she were the dream girl he thought she was. Firmly convinced that Marilyn was the girl of his dreams, George dined alone in a nearby restaurant and then made his way to the carnival grounds.

* * *

IT was getting dark and the early crowd had arrived. The ferris wheel churned, the merry-go-round whirled to the wheeze of a mechanical organ, and the Seneca Springs Annual Carnival was in full swing.

Midway lights flashed their sparkling brilliance on a thousand and one, the entire population of the city almost, wide-eyed people who milled through the sawdust and crowded the rows of concession stands on each side of the midway.

The aroma of peanuts and hamburgers and hot dogs struck George's face with force and the din of barkers pounded into his ears above the murmur of the crowd. Here were some dancers performing to the music of a three-piece band, and there were acrobats in tights, freaks who ate fire and swallowed swords, fortune tellers, and animal acts. Yes, animal acts, for they would play an important part in Detective George Kendall's pursuit of happiness.

George found Max Arno's concession stand. It was simply a soft-drink stand, but the soda water was sold under the label of Indian medicine, guaranteed to cure the blues and made locally by the Seneca Springs Bottling Works. Max was dressed in an Indian suit, complete to a war bonnet, and he was not doing a bad job in selling his wares.

As George moved a little closer to the stand, he caught a glimpse of Marilyn Sutworth. She was clad in jeans, a brightly colored shirt with the shirt-tail out, and a cowboy hat, and was helping Max serve his soda pop.

* * *

GEORGE slipped back into the crowd before Marilyn saw him and then threaded his way toward the animal cages. These were back of the sideshow tents and behind the cages were bales of hay and straw, feed and bedding for the animals.

George found activity around these bales and piles of loose hay. Here George's secretary was hard at work, scooping up armloads of the hay and carrying the stuff to a truck parked nearby. Helping her was the tawny haired young man, Tom Faber, who would drive the truck. The vehicle was half filled with straw and hay.

Then Verna Denton saw her boss. She stalked toward him.

"This is the stupidest brain child anyone ever had," she said wiping perspiration from her brow. "If you don't get arrested for kidnaping, you'll probably get yourself married."

"At least I won't be a quitter," George said hotly.

"Sometimes it's better to quit."

Moscow Gets Rose Oil

BELGRADE (AP) — For years, Bulgaria boasted a monopoly in production of attar of roses for the world market. To protect its two-century-old trade in that field, had banned the export of Bulgarian roses from which the attar is made.

But Russia sniffed a pretty penny in the offing when, in the guise of protector, it took over domination of Bulgarian economic affairs. It began soon after the war sending Bulgarian rose seeds home for planting, and production of the attar.

Now, it is Russia's turn to boast. The Soviets claim they have become the world's largest producer of the oil from rose petals—a statement recently vouched for by the Russian news agency "Tass." Responsible Yugoslav sources say Russia also markets the Bulgarian exports and pockets the profits.

Urgent Appeal For Nurses By Red Cross

An urgent appeal for registered nurses to work in the American Red Cross blood program was made today by Philip McLaughlin, chairman of the Pettis County Chapter. At least 25 nurses are needed at once in the midwest.

Blood for military use, as well as for civilian hospitals participating in the Red Cross blood program, has stepped up blood collection quotas for regional and defense blood centers, McLaughlin said. Immediate registered nurse vacancies exist in Michigan, Kansas, Missouri and Iowa. Other openings are available and registered nurses are urged to contact their local Red Cross chapter for information.

Red Cross officials at midwestern area office in St. Louis particularly urged inactive registered nurses to respond, Mr. McLaughlin said. Nurses employed for full time work in the blood program receive pay comparable to local salaries in the sections where they are assigned. In addition, paid vacations, sick leave benefits, travel and maintenance expenses when on overnight mobile unit operations are paid.

"It is not our intention to draw nurses in our community from duty in which they are vitally needed," Mr. McLaughlin added. "But, blood is part of our nation's defense strength, and there are registered nurses not active in their profession, or who are unable to serve with the armed forces. These nurses can perform an essential duty through the Red Cross Blood Program."

Mr. McLaughlin explained that the Red Cross regional and defense centers are established in central allocations where the greatest population concentrations exist. And from the blood centers one or more mobile units operate into adjacent communities within a radius of about 150 miles. Registered nurses accompany mobile units, setting up efficient blood collection stations for one to five days' operation in each community where voluntary blood donors have previously been recruited by local Red Cross chapters.

In the midwest, regional blood centers are located in Wichita, Kan.; Omaha, Nebr.; St. Louis and Springfield, Mo.; Peoria, Ill.; Lansing and Detroit, Mich.; Madison, Wis.; St. Paul, Minn. and Waco, Texas.

Defense blood centers are located in Little Rock, Ark.; Chicago, Ill.; Des Moines, Iowa; Kansas City, Mo.; Fort Worth and Beaumont, Tex., and Oklahoma City, Okla. In all, Red Cross has established 45 regional and defense blood collection centers in the nation.

Registered nurses are urged to contact their local chapter.

The World Today—

Truman-Congress Break Over Steel Just One of Several

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — The dispute between President Truman and members of Congress over seizure of the steel industry is further evidence of the breakdown in relations between the White House and the Capitol.

This is an election year and politics, of course, are a big factor in this wretched situation, which is steadily getting worse. But the fact is that the breakdown is real and earnest. The rest of the country can only sweat it out.

The most recent previous demonstration of how deep the split was appeared in what happened to Truman's attempt to have an investigation of government corruption. That was when he asked Congress for subpoena powers for Newbold Morris.

The then Att. Gen. McGrath had picked Morris as the cleanup man. Congress not only denied him the subpoena powers but some members denounced him, thus for all practical purposes scuttling the investigation.

This ended like a musical comedy when McGrath fired Morris and Truman fired McGrath, all in the same day. The President then chose James P. McGranery as attorney general and new cleanup man.

But before McGranery can take office he must be approved by the Senate. Weeks have passed and no approval yet, which means further bogging of the investigation and the Justice Department is without a regular head.

When it came to the steel seizure government lawyers apparently could find no law on the books specifically giving the President authority to take over the steel industry to head off a strike.

Truman decided such a strike would hurt defense and so damage the national welfare. Since he seemed to lack specific authority in any law for the seizure, he relied on the Constitution.

The powers conferred on the President and commander-in-chief by the Constitution are broad and vague. They don't say he could seize the steel industry in a situation like this. But they don't specifically say he couldn't.

Truman interpreted the Constitution but wide and implied power to act as he did in this case when he thinks there is a national emergency and that the country might suffer if he didn't.

At once his critics in Congress called him a dictator and usurper of constitutional powers which they argue don't exist.

The fat was in the fire again. And yesterday the Senate, led by Republicans, voted what was in effect a rebuke to Truman for his action in the steel dispute.

Truman struck right back. He called this kind of Senate action negative. He challenged Congress to take a constructive step by suggesting by law some way out of the steel dilemma.
